The Black Tutor Erotic Interracial Story:

Interracial Books for Children Bulletin, 1984 The Black Body in Ecstasy Jennifer C. Nash, 2014-03-31 In The Black Body in Ecstasy Jennifer C Nash rewrites black feminism's theory of representation Her analysis moves beyond black feminism's preoccupation with injury and recovery to consider how racial fictions can create a space of agency and even pleasure for black female subjects Nash's innovative readings of hardcore pornographic films from the 1970s and 1980s develop a new method of analyzing racialized pornography that focuses on black women's pleasures in blackness delights in toying with and subverting blackness moments of racialized excitement deliberate enactments of hyperbolic blackness and humorous performances of blackness that poke fun at the fantastical project of race Drawing on feminist and queer theory critical race theory and media studies Nash creates a new black feminist interpretative practice one attentive to the messy contradictions between delight and discomfort between desire and degradation at the heart of black pleasures

Encyclopedia of Romance Fiction Kristin Ramsdell, 2018-09-07 As the first encyclopedia solely devoted to the popular romance fiction genre this resource provides a wealth of information on all aspects of the subject Romance fiction accounts for a large share of book sales each year and contrary to popular belief not all of its readers are women roughly 16 percent are men This enormously popular genre continues to captivate people reading for pleasure and it also commands a growing amount of academic interest Included are alphabetically arranged reference entries on significant authors along with works themes and other topics The articles are written by scholars librarians and industry professionals with a deep knowledge of the genre and so provide a thorough understanding of the subject An index provides easy access to information within the entries and bibliographies at the end of each entry a general bibliography and a suggested romance reading list allow for further study of the genre The Reading Teacher, 1976 Resources in Education, 1997 A History of Literature in the Caribbean: English- and Dutch-speaking countries Albert James Arnold, Julio Rodríguez-Luis, J. Michael Dash, 2001-01-01 For the first time the Dutch speaking regions of the Caribbean and Suriname are brought into fruitful dialogue with another major American literature that of the anglophone Caribbean The results are as stimulating as they are unexpected The editors have coordinated the work of a distinguished international team of specialists Read separately or as a set of three volumes the History of Literature in the Caribbean is designed to serve as the primary reference book in this area The reader can follow the comparative evolution of a literary genre or plot the development of a set of historical problems under the appropriate heading for the English or Dutch speaking region An extensive index to names and dates of authors and significant historical figures completes the volume The subeditors bring to their respective specialty areas a wealth of Caribbeanist experience Vera M Kutzinski is Professor of English American and Afro American Literature at Yale University Her book Sugar's Secrets Race and The Erotics of Cuban Nationalism 1993 treated a crucial subject in the romance of the Caribbean nation Ineke Phaf Rheinberger has been very active in Latin American and Caribbean literary criticism for two decades first at the Free University in Berlin and later at the University of Maryland The editor of A History of Literature in the Caribbean A James Arnold is Professor of French at the University of Virginia where he founded the New World Studies graduate program Over the past twenty years he has been a pioneer in the historical study of the N gritude movement and its successors in the francophone Caribbean Desire and Consent in Representations of Adolescent Sexuality with Adults

Maureen Turim,Diane Waldman,2023-10-02 This book presents an innovative comparative view of how the issue of adolescent sexuality and consent is differently treated in various media Analyzing teenage sexual encounters with adults across a variety of media including films television novels and podcasts the volume takes a positive stance on the expression of teenage sexuality while remaining sensitive to the power of adults to abuse and manipulate The anthology treats these representations as negotiations between conflicting forces desire sexual self knowledge unequal power and the law the latter both actual legal statutes and internalized law in the philosophical and psychoanalytic sense Questions of unequal power inherent in such relations are theorized The authors examine variations of this configuration of sexual relations between teenagers and adults from different perspectives to consider how various forms of expression rework it formally These essays are attuned to both nuances of presentation and contexts of reception and they consider how aesthetics play a role Contributing to the general debate about the ways that societies construct and regulate adolescent sexuality this book will be of great interest to scholars and students of media studies cultural studies film studies television studies sociology and gender studies

Confronting Racism in Teacher Education Bree Picower,Rita Kohli,2017-03-27 Confronting Racism in Teacher Education aims to transform systematic and persistent racism through in depth analyses of racial justice struggles and strategies in teacher education By bringing together counternarratives of critical teacher educators the editors of this volume present key insights from both individual and collective experiences of advancing racial justice Written for teacher educators higher education administrators policy makers and others concerned with issues of race the book is comprised of four parts that each represent a distinct perspective on the struggle for racial justice contributors reflect on their experiences working as educators of Color to transform the culture of predominately White institutions navigating the challenges of whiteness within teacher education building transformational bridges within classrooms and training current and inservice teachers through concrete models of racial justice By bringing together these often individualized experiences Confronting Racism in Teacher Education reveals larger patterns that emerge of institutional racism in teacher education and the strategies that can inspire resistance

Bonds of Union Bridget Ford,2016-02-05 This vivid history of the Civil War era reveals how unexpected bonds of union forged among diverse peoples in the Ohio Kentucky borderlands furthered emancipation through a period of spiraling chaos between 1830 and 1865 Moving beyond familiar arguments about Lincoln s deft politics or regional commercial ties Bridget Ford recovers the potent religious racial and political attachments holding the country together at one of its most likely breaking points the Ohio River Living in a bitterly contested region the
