WRONG NAMES (from Impro by Keith Johnstone)

Everyone goes around the room very quickly and loudly gives the wrong names to 12 objects. It's amazing how difficult this is. Our minds are so blocked with logical thinking that it takes a lot of practise for most people to free themselves and do this simple exercise easily.

DEVELS INTO ANGELS

This is really a variation on the last game. The first person in the circle makes a devil-like pose, then turns to one side and faces the next person, who copies the pose and changes it into an angelic pose. He turns to the next person, who copies and changes into a devil and so on.

QUACK

'It's a great ice-breaker, it's never failed me even when working with a cautious group. And you can't get sillier than this!'

TRISHA WOOD

Everyone stands with legs apart, body hanging over forwards and hands on thighs or knees. Then, looking back between the legs, walk around backwards. When you meet someone, exchange the greeting 'Quack!'

POINTS ON THE FLOOR

Ask everyone to get into groups of a chosen size with just a certain number of points touching the floor, e.g. 'Make groups of seven with five points on the floor! Everyone gets into groups and attempts to balance so only five points are touching the floor. This usually involves a certain amount of negotiation and hilarity.
