The Case Alice White Investigator 1:

1. Report of Investigation of Coastal Waters in the Vicinity of Gulfport and Biloxi, Miss., with Special Reference to the Pollution of Shellfish, 1914 Hanged at Pentonville Steve Fielding, 2008-02-29 The history of execution at Pentonville began with the hanging of a Scottish hawker in 1902 Over the next sixty years the names of those who made the short walk to the gallows reads like a who's who of twentieth century murder They include the notorious Dr Crippen Neville Heath mass murderer John Christie of Rillington Place as well as scores of forgotten criminals German spies Italian gangsters teenage tearaways cut throat killers and many more Infamous executioners also played a part in the gaol's history the Billington family of Bolton Rochdale barber John Ellis and Robert Baxter of Hertford who for over a decade was the sole executioner at Pentonville For many years the prison was used to train the country's hangmen including members of the well known Pierrepoint family Harry Allen and Robert Leslie Stewart the country's last executioners Fully illustrated with photographs news cuttings and engravings Hanged at Pentonville is bound to appeal to anyone interested in the darker side of London's history Bad Faith Andrew Feffer, 2019-01-08 In late summer 1940 as war spread across Europe and as the nation pulled itself out of the Great Depression an anticommunist hysteria convulsed New York City Targeting the city's municipal colleges and public schools the New York state legislature's Rapp Coudert investigation dragged hundreds of suspects before public and private tribunals to root out a perceived communist conspiracy to hijack the city's teachers unions subvert public education and indoctrinate the nation's youth Drawing on the vast archive of Rapp Coudert records Bad Faith provides the first full history of this witch hunt which lasted from August 1940 to March 1942 Anticipating McCarthyism and making it possible the episode would have repercussions for decades to come In recapturing this moment in the history of prewar anticommunism Bad Faith challenges assumptions about the origins of McCarthyism the liberal political tradition and the role of anticommunism in modern American life With roots in the city's political culture Rapp Coudert enjoyed the support of not only conservatives but also key liberal reformers and intellectuals who well before the Cold War raised threats to national security joined in accusing communists of bad faith and branded them enemies of American democracy Exploring fundamental schisms between liberals and communists Bad Faith uncovers a dark countersubversive side of liberalism which involved charges of misrepresentation lying and deception and led many liberals to argue that the communist left should be excluded from American educational institutions and political life This study of the Rapp Coudert inquisition raises difficult questions about the good faith of the many liberals willing to aid and endorse the emerging Red scare as they sacrificed principles of open debate and academic freedom in the interest of achieving what they believed would be effective modern government based on bipartisanship and a new and seemingly permanent economic prosperity Report of the State Auditor of Georgia Georgia.
