Biestek, 1957 Acceptance in the Casework Relationship Rose Maureen Kelly, 1955 Social Casework Helen Harris Perlman, 1957-03-15 This is a basic book in social casework Its thesis is that among all the complexities within the subject matter and operations of casework there are certain constant elements forces and processes which give coherence and unity to its practice Mrs Perlman identifies and analyzes these constants and views them within the logical framework of problem solving In turn problem solving as a casework process is examined in its likeness to normal human problem solving efforts
The result is an approach to learning and thinking about casework which is at once organized synthesized and imaginative
The book s usefulness is enhanced by the author s lucid and pointed style The Caseworker's Differential Use of the Casework Relationship in Individual as Contrasted to Multiple Interviewing, 1969 Intimate Relationships Wendell

Offender Rehabilitation Gwen Robinson, Iain D Crow, 2009-01-22 Robinson and Crow have achieved the seemingly impossible a book about rehabilitation that transcends the medical model that is original and contemporary yet grounded in a sophisticated history and most of all that is fun to read It will become a new classic text in a field that has been crying out for one Professor Shadd Maruna Queen s University Belfast In an age where there is much public and political confusion about many criminal justice matters this book brings considerable clarity to the idea of rehabilitation its theoretical and historical roots and contemporary practical application This is an accessible lively and critical account of a concept which is central to the shape of the criminal justice system in pursuance of something that will work to reduce reoffending Rehabilitation seems to go in and out of fashion depending on the politics of the day but the careful and thorough examination of the different contexts in which it operates and competing perspectives on its potential offered here highlights its enduring qualities This is a fascinating and engaging book by two established and real world scholars which will serve students and policy makers alike in the fields of criminal justice and social policy Loraine Gelsthorpe Reader in Criminology and Criminal Justice Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge This comprehensive text explains all the key themes in the development and practice of offender rehabilitation It explores how the issue fits within its wider social and political contexts giving an insight into its current and future relevance to criminal justice The book covers the full range of rehabilitative approaches exploring how criminal justice responses have been influenced by trends such as the treatment model What Works desistance risk and public protection and changes in social policy It offers the following essential features theoretical grounding providing students with all the essential background they need in order to fully understand the subject historical context enabling the reader to see how ideas policies and practices have developed over time research focus introducing the reader to questions about how rehabilitative approaches have been evaluated and debates about what works for particular groups of offenders such as sexual offenders and drug misusers study questions and further reading giving students the tools both to revise and to expand their knowledge Offender Rehabilitation both advances thinking about the notion of rehabilitation and ensures that students of crime and justice can keep abreast of the most recent developments in this area Coercion in the Caseworker
