The Borderline Diaries:

The Borderline Diaries Elisa Frank, 2015-01-14 Elisa Frank's sister and best friend were murdered in front of her eyes by her ex-boyfriend who then abducted her. The police caught him but Elisa was left traumatised and with her own life sentence of grief. Here she tells the story and describes how she battled mental health issues and recovered to fulfil her dream of becoming a writer.

Romania and the Holocaust Simon Geissbühler, 2016-10-11 From summer 1941 onwards Romania actively pursued at its own initiative the mass killing of Jews in the territories it controlled. 1941 saw 13 000 Jewish residents of the Romanian city of Iași killed, the extermination of thousands of Jews in Northern Bukovina and Bessarabia by Romanian armed forces and local people, large scale deportations of Jews to the camps and ghettos of Transnistria and massacres in and around Odessa. Overall more than 300 000 Jews of Romanian and Soviet or Ukrainian origin were murdered in Romanian controlled territories during the Second World War. In this volume a number of renowned experts shed light on the events, the contexts and the aftermath of this under-researched and lesser known dimension of the Holocaust. 75 years on this book gives a much needed impetus to research on the Holocaust in Romania and Romanian controlled territories.

Hitler's People Richard J Evans, 2024-08-13 Named a Best Book of the Year by Kirkus Reviews and Air Mail. A fascinating and instructive book elegantly written and perceptive. Wall Street Journal. Kaleidoscopic. A fascinating exploration of individual agency that never loses sight of the larger context. Just the kind of probing, nuanced and unsparing study to help us think things through. The New York Times. Through a connected set of biographical portraits of key Nazi figures that follows power as it radiated out from Hitler to the inner and outer circles of the regime's leadership, one of our greatest historians answers the enduring question: how does a society come to carry out a program of unspeakable evil? Richard Evans, author of the acclaimed The Third Reich Trilogy and over two dozen other volumes on modern Europe, is our preeminent scholar of Nazi Germany. Having spent half a century searching for the truths behind one of the most horrifying episodes in human history, in Hitler's People he brings us back to the original site of the Nazi movement: namely the lives of its most important members. Working in concentric circles out from Hitler and his closest allies, Evans forms a typological framework of Germany's society under Nazi rule from the top down. With a novelist's eye for detail, Evans explains the Third Reich through the personal failings and professional ambitions of its members, from its most notorious deputies like Goebbels, the regime's propagandist, and Himmler, the Holocaust's chief architect, to the crucial enforcers and instruments of the Nazi agenda that history has largely forgotten, like the schoolteacher Julius Streicher and the actress Leni Riefenstahl. Drawing on a wealth of recently unearthed historical sources, Hitler's People lays bare the inner and outer lives of the characters whose choices led to the deaths of millions Nearly a century after Hitler's rise the leading nations of the West are once again being torn apart by a will to power By telling the stories of these infamous lives as human lives Evans asks us to grapple with the complicated nature of complicity showing us that the distinctions between individual and collective responsibility and even between pathological evil and rational choice are never easily drawn The Diaries of Tchaikovsky Peter Ilich Tchaikovsky,1945 Moravian Mission Diaries of David Zeisberger Hermann Wellenreuther,Carola Wessel,2010-11-01

Lacework or Mirror? Diary Poetics of Frances Burney, Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Shelley Magdalena Ożarska, 2014-01-08 Lacework or Mirror Diary Poetics of Frances Burney Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Shelley sets out to determine whether each of the diaries by three female writers namely Frances Burney Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Shelley approximates the Philippe Lejeunean concept of the diary as lacework or the more sweeping view typical of the broadly conceived autobiography which Georges Gusdorf famously likened to the mirror The author explores Burney's Wordsworth's and Shelley's attempts at concealing the gaps between their narrating and narrated I's as well as examining their diary lacunae especially helpful for illustrating the gradual emergence of the diarists individual selves Broader issues connected with diary poetics such as the use of metaphors and symbols the degree of reliance on dialogue and ensuing narrativity down to handling the past by means of anachronous eccentricities are also subject to examination The study is based on the assumption that the journal is a literary genre which can be investigated with tools routinely used for the examination of literary texts Yet beyond the issues of literariness in accordance with Philippe Lejeune's dictum the three journals reveal the writers diaristic practices In fact it seems that issues of the journal genre and the journal practice cannot be divorced and neither can their lacework and mirror aspects Closer and Closer Apart Rosemary H. Lloyd, 2019-05-15 Envy Rosemary Lloyd says involves what one would like to have but does not jealousy what one has but fears losing Lloyd demonstrates in Closer and Closer Apart how the passion unleashed by jealousy can illuminate such concepts as self and other gender and society Jealousy in her view exerts a powerful attraction in literature partly because it distorts the individual's perceptions of the other in highly productive ways and partly because it serves as paradigms for reading and for storytelling In this accessible and elegantly crafted book Lloyd explores sexual jealousy more as a literary device than as a literary theme She draws her examples from novels plays and poetry spanning many years and from many countries mainly nineteenth and twentieth century France and England but also Russia Poland Germany Italy the United States Canada and Australia Among the writers she treats are Proust Tolstoy Dostoyevsky Charlotte Brontë Trollope Barthes and Baudelaire After discussing various portraits of the jealous lover Lloyd asks to what extent the literary experience of jealousy has been colored by conventional images of male and female roles She also examines the ways in which the jealous lover deals with the other whether beloved or rival Finally she looks at jealousy as a desire for control represented through images of incorporation and possession

Diary writing has often been relegated to the fringes of literary studies as a marginal cultural activity This volume seeks to challenge that marginality by exploring some of the wide ranging forms of literary practice encompassed by diary writing in Europe from the Renaissance to the present day The volume deals with questions of the value and status of the diary of the functioning of the diary in society and history and of the reception and interpretation of the multifarious forms of first person daily writing The volume investigates diaries across national borders and linguistic boundaries so as to make the hitherto marginal place of the private journal a site of fruitful interdisciplinary encounters Australian British Catalan French

German and Italian critics examine diaries dating from the sixteenth to the twentieth century within the context of the literature history and literary history of Catalonia England France Germany and Italy A prime concern of the essays in this collection is to highlight the cultural generic and historical diversity of the diary while emphasising the points of convergence between different texts and differing critical approaches to the texts The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of European and comparative literature
