The Banana Manuscripts:

The Banana Manuscripts (Conclusion: Unpeeled) Kevin McCartney, 2016-10-14 As the author of this book I definitely do not recommend it I consider it a failed experiment through which hopefully I ve gained some valuable insights I would have made this concluding episode free but 0 99 was the minimal allowable charge The Banana Manuscripts Kevin McCartney, 2014-10-31 Nathaniel was faced with an impossible dilemma While residing in a huge monastic compound in the midst of a secluded wilderness he one day discovered to his own astonishment that he was capable of lucid conversations with the diverse creatures who inhabited the ancient forest a gift which created an ever widening rift between himself and all the other brethren none of whom shared his unique talent and all of whom thus labeled him as deeply deluded and seriously troubled Should he distance himself from his beloved animals who had thoroughly captivated him through their intelligence and charm or simply accept being ostracized by his doubting peers For he greatly enjoyed the incredible tales the creatures brought him as the rumors of his special gift began to spread throughout the forest He was fascinated to learn for instance of the animals alleged and humorously incidental past influences over some of mankind s most notable achievements Could it truly be that an extraordinarily wise ape secretly guided Sir Isaac in his discovery of gravity Or that it was actually a flying squirrel that led Benjamin to harness the power of electricity And how curious to hear the raven s own take on Poe s inimitable poem Whether true or not he greatly enjoyed the tales they spun and the companionship they provided To complicate things even further Nathaniel became hopelessly enamored with the enchanting eldress who had been assigned to closely monitor him for his brethren were seriously considering placing him into permanent protective confinement should he show signs of slipping any further into his world of fantasy The results of the choices he made were simultaneously humorous emotionally stirring and completely extraordinary *Beginning & Practice Manuscript Traditional Style Gr.
