The Big Killing:

The Big Killing Robert Wilson, 2003-11-03 Bruce Medway is the target of a deadly conspiracy in this darkly tangled thriller by the CWA Gold Dagger Award winning author of A Small Death in Lisbon Kirkus Reviews As a fixer Bruce Medway makes his living doing things other people don't want to do And in the seedier corners of West Africa there are plenty of tasks that need doing For example porn producer Fat Paul needs someone to deliver a video to the Ivory Coast but the recipients will only trust a white man to make a drop A Syrian millionaire wants Bruce to travel to Korhogo to fire someone on his payroll And Martin Fall head of security at a firm back home in England needs a man to keep an eye on diamond hunter Ronald Collins Seems like three easy gigs for Bruce until two of his clients end up dead and the third goes missing All three cases are dangerously tied to a group of Liberian rebels determined to wreak havoc wherever they go Now Bruce needs to outwit a band of killers all gunning for him before he becomes part of their swiftly rising body count The action is furious and the one liners would have made even Raymond Chandler jealous The Sunday Times Wilson writes concisely but poetically about a callously brutal side of African life that rings with a dark sad credibility Publishers Weekly starred review

Billy the Kid author Melody Groves explores the early life of the infamous outlaw the teenage boy who loved to sing and dance The young man who was polite educated and popular A boy who had the bad luck to be orphaned at fifteen and left with no one to guide him through life How different history might have been if Billy had pursued his love of music instead of a life of crime Waterfront Fists and Others Robert E. Howard, 2004-11-01 It is impossible to ignore the sheer number of boxing stories that Robert E Howard wrote Serious or funny spooky or adventurous these stories represent a fierce creative outburst that would pave the way later for his western hero Breckenridge Elkins In these stories we see Howard s craft pushed from mere construction to passionate involvement He took all of his interests and peppered them through the various boxing stories He wrote them faster than the magazine could print them Clearly he loved what he was doing When Howard could write no more he went on to draft Conan and the aforementioned Elkins who owes much in style and content to the Costigan stories The fight stories are a joy to read and reread They are funny bawdy picaresque and violent Presented here as they were originally printed they perfectly showcase why Robert E Howard was one of the greatest adventure writers of the 20th century
