Happiness—Concept, Measurement and Promotion Yew-Kwang Ng, 2021-12-03 This open access book defines happiness intuitively and explores several common conceptual mistakes with regard to happiness. It then moves on to address topical issues including but not limited to whether money can buy you happiness, why happiness is ultimately the only thing of intrinsic value and the various factors important for happiness. It also presents a more reliable and interpersonally comparable method for measuring happiness and discusses twelve factors from A to L that are crucial for individual happiness: attitude, balance, confidence, dignity, engagement, family, friends, gratitude, health, ideals, joyfulness, kindness, and love. Further, it examines important public policy considerations taking into account recent advances in economics, the environmental sciences, and happiness studies. Novel issues discussed include an environmentally responsible happy nation index to supplement GDP, the East Asian happiness gap, a case for stimulating pleasure centres of the brain, and an argument for higher public spending.

The Surge Larry J. Sabato, 2015-03-16 The 2014 midterm election was one of the most significant in recent memory with a decisive turning of the tables in favor of Republicans. With a now Republican controlled Senate and House at odds with a Democratic president with only two years left in office, the fault lines within and between both parties have never been more tenuous. In this book, prominent elections scholar and political commentator Larry J. Sabato brings together respected journalists and experts from across the political spectrum to examine every facet of the midterm election results and the implications for the 2016 election cycle. In frank, accessible prose, each author offers insight that goes beyond the headlines to analyze what the midterm results mean and what is at stake in the coming presidential race. Contributing authors joining Larry Sabato with chapters in the book include Professor Alan Abramovitz of Emory University, Mark Blumenthal of Huffington Post, Jamelle Bouie of Slate, Rhodes Cook formerly of Congressional Quarterly, Robert Costa of the Washington Post, Ariel Edwards Levy of Huffington Post, James Hohmann of Politico, political writers and commentators Kyle Kondik and Geoff Skelley of the University of Virginia Center for Politics, Jill Lawrence of Creators Syndicate, Visiting Assistant Professor Josh Putnam of Appalachian State University, Michael Toner and Karen Trainer of Wiley Rein LLP, and Sean Trende of RealClearPolitics.

Surviving Alex Patricia A. Roos, 2024-05-17 In 2015, Patricia Roos's twenty-five-year-old son Alex died of a heroin overdose. Turning her grief into action, Roos, a professor of sociology at Rutgers University, began to research the social factors and institutional failures that contributed to his death. Surviving Alex tells her moving story and outlines the possibilities of a more compassionate and effective approach to addiction treatment. Weaving together a personal narrative and a sociological perspective, Surviving Alex movingly describes how even children from good families fall prey to addiction and recounts the hellish toll it takes on families. Drawing from interviews with Alex's friends, family members, therapists, teachers, and police officers, as well as files from his stays in hospitals, rehab facilities, and jails, Roos paints a compelling portrait of a young man whose life veered between happiness, anxiety, success, and despair. And as she explores how a punitive system failed her son she calls for a community of action that would improve care for substance users and reduce addiction realigning public health policy to address the overdose crisis Owens, Laura Scott
