Adams Sitney, 2008-04-18 Sitney analyzes in detail the magnitude of Proust's continuing appeal work of eleven American avant garde filmmakers as heirs to the aesthetics of exhilaration and innovative vision articulated by Ralph Waldo Emerson and explored by John Cage Charles Olson and Gertrude Stein The films discussed span the sixty years since the Second World War With three chapters each devoted to Stan Brakhage and Robert Beavers two each to Hollis Frampton and Jonas Mekas and single chapters on Marie Menken Ian Hugo Andrew Noren Warren Sonbert Su Friedrich Ernie Gehr and Abigail Child Eyes Upside Down is the fruit of Sitney's lifelong study of visionary aspirations in the American avant garde cinema Transcendence, Creation and Incarnation Anthony O'Hear, 2020-06-11 This book expounds and analyses notions of transcendence creation and incarnation reflectively and personally combining both philosophical and religious insights Preferring tender minded approaches to reductively materialistic ones it shows some ways in which reductive approaches to human affairs can distort the appreication of our lives and activities In the book s first half it examines a number of aspects of human life and experience in the thought of Darwin Ruskin and Scruton with a view to exploring the extent to which there could be intimations of transcendence The second half is then devoted to outlining an account of divine creation and incarnation deriving initially though not uncritically from the thought of Simone Weil The text concludes by examining the extent to which grace is needed to engage in religious practice and belief Taking in art literature music and classical Greek writings this is a multifaceted thesis on transcendence It will therefore will be of keen interest to any scholar of Philosophy of Religion Theology Aesthetics and Metaphysics Practices of Surprise in American Literature after Emerson Kate Stanley, 2018-07-19 This book establishes surprise as a key Emersonian affect and demonstrates its significance for transatlantic modernism and the philosophy of pragmatism Canadian Cultural Exchange / Échanges culturels au Canada Norman Cheadle, Lucien Pelletier, 2011-04-07 The essays in Canadian Cultural Exchange changes culturels au Canada provide a nuanced view of Canadian transcultural experience Rather than considering Canada as a bicultural dichotomy of colonizer colonized this book examines a field of many cultures and the creative interactions among them This study discusses from various perspectives Canadian cultural space as being in process of continual translation of both the other and oneself Les articles r unis dans Canadian Cultural Exchange changes culturels au Canada donnent de l exp rience transculturelle canadienne une image nuanc e Plut t que dans les termes d une dichotomie biculturelle entre colonisateur et colonis le Canada y est vu comme champ o 1 plusieurs cultures interagissent de mani re cr ative Cette tude pr sente sous de multiples aspects le processus continu de traduction d autrui et de soi m ame auquel l espace culturel canadien sert de th tre The Nineteenth Century and After ,1927 Transfiguration Stephen Cheeke, 2016 Transfiguration explores the work of John Ruskin Robert Browning Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Walter Pater treating in particular the ways in which they engaged with the Christian content of their subject and in Pater's case how the art of Christianity was contrasted with classical sculpture Stephen Cheeke examines two related phenomena idolatry a false substitution a sexual betrayal and the poetics of transfiguration to elevate or glorify subject matter not thought of as conventionally poetic to praise Central to the book is the question of the translation of religion into art and aesthetics a process which supposedly undergirds the advent of the museum age and makes possible the idea of a religion of art as a phenomenon of late century Aestheticism Such a phenomenon is prepared for however through the engagement with Christian painting and classical sculpture in the work of these four writers All four thought carefully about the ways in which a particular mimetic impulse of making live in artworks could be connected to religious experience This meant exploring the nature of the link between seeing and believing visualising in order to conceive to verify but also in the sense of being acted upon by the visible All four wrote about the great power of artworks to transfigure the objects of their attention In each case there emerges the possibility of a secret sexual knowledge hiding within or lying on the other side of the sensuous knowledge of aesthesis All four wondered whether this was inherently hostile to Christianity or whether it may finally be an accommodation within it Experiencing Architecture in the Nineteenth Century Edward Gillin, H. Horatio Joyce, 2018-10-18 Bringing together fourteen original essays this collection opens up new perspectives on the architectural history of the nineteenth century by examining the buildings of the period through the lens of experience With a focus on the experience of the ordinary building user rather than simply on the intentions of the designer the book shows that new and important insights can be brought to our understanding of Victorian architecture The chapters present a range of ideas and new research some examining individual building case studies from grand hotels and clubhouses in New York to the parliament buildings of Westminster and others exploring conceptual questions about the nature of architectural experience whether sensory or otherwise Yet they share the premise that the idea of the experience of architecture took on a new and particular significance with the rise of industrial modernity and they examine what contemporary people both architects and non architects understood by this idea The insights in this volume extend beyond the study of Victorian architecture Together they suggest how experience might be used as a framework to produce a more convincingly historical account of the artefacts of architectural history Proustian Mind Anna Elsner, Thomas Stern, 2022-12-30 When Marcel Proust started to work on In Search of Lost Time in 1908 he wrote this question in his notebook Should I make it a novel a philosophical study am I a novelist Throughout his famous multi volume work Proust directly engages several philosophers and few novels are as thoroughly saturated with philosophical themes and concepts as In Search of Lost Time The Proustian Mind is an outstanding reference source to the rich philosophical range of Proust s work and the first major volume of its kind Including 31 chapters by an international team of contributors the volume is divided into seven clear parts Proust's life and works metaphysics and epistemology mind and language aesthetics ethics gender and sexuality predecessors contemporaries and successors Within these sections key Proustian themes are explored from a philosophical standpoint including time the self memory imagination jealousy beauty love subjectivity and desire The final section considers Proust in relation to important philosophers such as Schopenhauer Nietzsche Bergson Merleau Ponty Sartre de Beauvoir and Deleuze The Proustian Mind is essential reading for those studying aesthetics philosophy of literature phenomenology and ethics and will also be of interest to those in literature studying modernism French literature and the relationship between literature and philosophy The Senses of Modernism Sara Danius, 2019-01-24 In The Senses of Modernism Sara Danius develops a radically new theoretical and historical understanding of high modernism The author closely analyzes Thomas Mann's The Magic Mountain Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past and James Joyce's Ulysses as narratives of the sweeping changes that affected high and low culture in the age of technological reproduction In her discussion of the years from 1880 to 1930 Danius proposes that the high modernist aesthetic is inseparable from a technologically mediated crisis of the senses She reveals the ways in which categories of perceiving and knowing are realigned when technological devices are capable of reproducing sense data Sparked by innovations such as chronophotography phonography radiography cinematography and technologies of speed this sudden shift in perceptual abilities had an effect on all arts of the time Danius explores how perception notably sight and hearing is staged in the three most significant modern novels in German French and British literature The Senses of Modernism connects technological change and formal innovation to transform the study of modernist aesthetics Danius questions the longstanding acceptance of a binary relationship between high and low culture and describes the complicated relationship between modernism and technology challenging the conceptual divide between a technological culture and a more properly aesthetic one The Twentieth Century ,1927 Mirages and Mad Beliefs Christopher Prendergast, 2013-07-21 Marcel Proust was long the object of a cult in which the main point of reading his great novel In Search of Lost Time was to find with its narrator a redemptive epiphany in a pastry and a cup of lime blossom tea We now live in less confident times in ways that place great strain on the assumptions and beliefs that made those earlier readings possible This has led to a new manner of reading Proust against the grain In Mirages and Mad Beliefs Christopher Prendergast argues the case differently with the grain on the basis that Proust himself was prey to self doubt and found numerous if indirect ways of letting us know Prendergast traces in detail the locations and forms of a quietly nondogmatic yet insistently skeptical voice that questions the redemptive aesthetic the novel is so often taken to celebrate bringing the reader to wonder whether that aesthetic is but another instance of the mirage or the mad belief that in other guises figures prominently in In Search of Lost Time In tracing the modalities of this self pressuring voice Prendergast ranges far and wide across a multiplicity of ideas themes sources and stylistic registers in Proust's literary thought and writing practice attentive at every point to inflections of detail in a sustained account of Proust the skeptic for the contemporary reader Invisible Masterpiece Hans Belting, 2001-09 The invisible masterpiece then is an unattainable ideal an ideal that has both bewitched and bewildered artists The Invisible Masterpiece is an unusual reconstruction of the history of the work of art since 1800 in which Hans Belting explores and explains the dreams and fears the triumphs and failures of modernity s painters and sculptors BOOK JACKET Confrontations, 2021-11-01 The result of interdisciplinary collaboration rarely undertaken in such a systematic manner Confrontations brings together literary critics historians and art historians to reflect on a cluster of themes inspired by the commemoration of the centenary of the Dreyfus Affair From literary expressions of revolt in all its excess and nuance to the complexities of political confrontations illuminated by analyses of J Accuse this book explores the tensions and dissent kindled throughout the century by rhetorical artistic and political audaciousness These essays invite the reconsideration of diverse forms of opposition repression and resistance from the most blatant to the most subtle as expressed through a variety of objects word act and image become political gestures just as politics is inspired by artistic and literary creation After examining diverse forms of textual negotiation the book explores acts of defiance and concludes with a discussion of a range of polemics including but not limited to the Dreyfus Affair This volume represents a reference source rich in new perspectives on the emblematic controversies of the nineteenth century literary artistic social and political
