An Enlightened Learner Supreet Kaur,2024-08-02 According to a recent study communication skills personality leadership qualities and negotiation skills account for 85% of our success in life while academic grades we achieve in school or colleges account for 15% Life is an ongoing journey and along the way we encounter various other problems that we cannot solve by using algebra calculations or historical facts We require a set of skills to develop as humans and this is an ongoing process It s not like we ve learned something and that s it the hardest part is incorporating our new knowledge into our daily lives Our real world is full of warriors who really do not have favourable life circumstances but kept it going with real life learning and won the battle This book gives you hope by providing navigation techniques that can help you expand your learning vision and domain Each of us possesses that Hidden potential We only need to go deep spread our roots and the orchid of life will strengthen our branches      Youth Contact Sports and Broken Brains Bruce Parkman,2022-09-26 A young athlete goes down Our knees go weak We hold our breath The seconds stretch into minutes but finally the athlete rises We cheer The athlete rubs their head then bravely plays on We breathe again No damage done Or so we think How familiar is this sight to parents and families around the country How many times a week does this take place Sports related injuries suffered by child athletes often go unreported and undiagnosed Here in Youth Contact Sports And Broken Brains Bruce Parkman tells the story of his athletic son Mac Parkman and how his repetitive exposure to concussive subconcussive trauma caused him to silently suffer with depression schizophrenia and suicidality before taking his life at the age of 17 Sports have a long history in society and the discussion of these issues may seem an unwelcome cultural shift but in Youth Contact Sports And Broken Brains Bruce Parkman takes a logical and scientific approach to linking mental illness with concussive subconcussive trauma suffered by young athletes in contact sports Mac s story and the family s vulnerability are powerful and followed by undeniable science Youth Contact Sports And Broken Brains breaks down the science of brain development repetitive brain trauma and their links to mental illness while giving parents the information they need to keep their children safe when participating in contact sports It is important to know The human brain is not designed to handle repetitive trauma Concussive subconcussive trauma cannot be prevented by wearing helmets or pads The exposure of a developing brain to subconcussive and concussive trauma can cause significant impact to the brain s structure which over time can lead to cognitive and behavioral challenges including mental illness Repeated episodes of concussive subconcussive trauma can cause significant changes to the structure and function of the brain in a condition known as Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy CTE Every child that plays a contact sport will suffer subconcussive trauma at every practice and game Any damage done to the brain cannot be accurately assessed and its impacts will not be seen for years or decades after being damaged There are forms of non contact sports and numerous athletic activities for kids to enjoy let them be kids This book and The Mac Parkman Foundation was formed out of the loss of a great young man to suicide at the age of 17 after struggling with mental illness caused by prolonged exposure to concussive and subconcussive trauma from contact sports at a young age Proceeds from this book will directly fund research and education on the links between concussive subconcussive trauma and mental health surrounding contact sports and youth athletes      Exposure Ava Dellaira,2024-09-10 I will be thinking about this book for a long time Sally Hepworth author of Darling Girls The shocking unforgettable novel that Junot Diaz called searingly brilliant now with an exclusive bonus chapter enhanced discussion guide and a conversation with the author Ava Dellaira GRIEF IS LIKE THIS Falling in love with your best friend only to lose her to a mysterious death Working for decades to achieve a dream and just when it's within reach watching it threaten to go up in flames Rushing home to the city you fled years ago to witness your father's last breaths Spending the first sleepless months in the throes of new motherhood alone as your husband struggles to save his career Befriending the woman who should be your enemy because you are that lonely Annie Jesse Noah and Juliette are tied together by their experiences of grief they are separated by their own versions of the truth of what happened on a single night twelve years ago when Juliette a college freshman grieving her mother and Noah a high school senior fighting for a place in a world that told him he didn't matter found each other Spanning decades this complex captivating story pulls back the curtains of cancel culture to explore ambition empathy art desire consent motherhood and what it really means to lose everything

Tumor Me Monica Kleijn Evason, 2023-09-05 Thinking It's both a great gift and a burden Thinking about what could be What if is a question all young brain tumor survivors have pondered since their diagnosis What if the tumor was bigger or in a different place What if the tumor was more dangerous What if it wasn't me Tumor Me is the culmination of a mother's eight year search to understand how her son really felt after surviving a childhood brain tumor What she uncovered through hundreds of conversations with other young survivors was that when given the space to think out loud most were coping far better than their parents The very personal true stories that seventeen remarkable young brain tumor survivors share in Tumor Me open our eyes to the incredible neuroplasticity of the human brain The power of owning our story even the messy parts and the shift that comes from understanding that we don't need to navigate life alone Tumor Me is a reminder to all of us to hit the pause button on life get out of our own way and ask ourselves am I really living my best life Is the story in your head helping you or holding you back
