Morra, Sarah Henzi, 2021-05-20 On the Other Side s of 150 explores the different literary historical and cultural legacies of Canada's sesquicentennial celebrations. It asks vital questions about the ways that histories and stories have been suppressed and invites consideration about what happens once a commemorative moment has passed Like a Cubist painting this modality offers a critical strategy by which also to approach the volume as dismantling reassembling and re enacting existing commemorative tropes as offering multiple conditional and contingent viewpoints that unfold over time and as generating a broader although far from being comprehensive range of counter memorial performances. The chapters in this volume are thus provisional interconnected and adaptive they offer critical assemblages by which to approach commemorative narratives or showcase lacunae therein by which to return to and intervene in ongoing readings of the past from the present moment and by which not necessarily to resolve but rather to understand the troubled and troubling narratives of the present moment Contributors propose that these preoccupations are not a means of turning away from present concerns but rather a means of grappling with how the past informs or is shaped to inform them and how such concerns are defined by immediate social contexts and networks Canada Through American Eyes Jennifer Andrews, 2023-06-22 This book explores how Canada is imagined primarily by US writers and what readers and scholars on both sides of the Canada US border can learn from these recent depictions by examining a selection of US authored fiction from 9 11 to the present The novels and occasionally paintings films and musicals that are the subject of the book provide a deliberately varied set of case studies to probe how US texts along with works of art produced on both sides of the Canada US border uncover moments in Canadian historical and literary studies that have been buried or occluded to protect Canada's self representation as an exceptional nation Forms of Enchantment: Writings on Art and Artists Marina Warner, 2018-10-23 An anthology of enlightening writing by an award winning critic that engages with art in its social political and aesthetic contexts Art writing at its most useful should share the dynamism fluidity and passions of the objects of its enquiry argues author Marina Warner in this new anthology Here some of Warner's most compelling writing captures the visual experience of the work of a diverse group of artists with a notable focus on the inner lives of women through an exploration of the range of stories and symbols to which they allude in their work Warner vividly describes this imagery covering the connection with animals in the work of Louise Bourgeois the Catholicism of Damien Hirst performance as a medium of memory in the installations of Joan Jonas and more Rather than drawing on connoisseurship Warner's approach grows principally out of anthropology and mythology Accompanied by illustrations of the works being described Marina Warner's writing unites the imagination of artist writer and reader creating a reading experience that parallels the intrinsic pleasure of looking at art This book will appeal to any student of art history those interested in philosophy feminism and Historic Maps of Kentucky Thomas D. fast paced accurate and thrilling a retelling of one of the weightiest moments of the twentieth century God on the Western Front Joseph F. Byrnes, 2023-08-31 From 1914 to 1918 religious believers and hopeful skeptics tried to find meaning and purpose behind divinely willed destruction God on the Western Front is a history of lived religion across national boundaries religious affiliations and class during World War I utilizing an expansive record of primary sources Joseph F Byrnes takes readers on a tour of the battlefields of France listening to the words of German French and English soldiers going behind the lines to hear from the men and women who provided pastoral and medical care and reviewing the religious writings of priests bishops ministers and rabbis as they tried to make sense of it all The story begins with citizens at home as they responded to the obligation to make war and then focuses on the God talk and nation talk that soldiers used to express their foundational religious experiences Byrnes s study attends to the words of average men who struggled to articulate their religious sentiments alongside the generals Helmuth von Moltke Ferdinand Foch and Douglas Haig and the soldier theologians Franz Rosenzweig Paul Tillich Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy In doing so he shows how religious and battle experience are intertwined and showcases the wide range of spiritual responses that emerged across boundaries Going beyond the typical constraints of studies focused either on one nation or one confessional affiliation Byrnes s international and interfaith approach breaks new ground It will appeal to scholars and students of modern European history religious history and the history of war Settling the World M. John Harrison, 2020-08-20 Throughout his career M John Harrison's writing has defied categorisation building worlds both unreal and all too real overlapping and interlocking with each other His stories are replete with fissures and portals into parallel dimensions unidentified countries and lost lands But more important than the places they point to are the obsessions that drive the people who so believe in them characters who spend their lives hunting for and haunted by clues and maps that speak to the possibility of somewhere else This selection of stories drawn from over 50 years of writing bears witness to that desire for difference whether following backstreet occultists amateur philosophers down and outs or refugees we see our relationship with the other in microscopic detail and share in Harrison's rejection of the idea that the world or our understanding of it could ever be settled Sea Venture Kieran Doherty, 2007-05-15 Publisher description Plein Airs and Graces Adrian Mitchell. 2012 Plein Airs and Graces examines the extraordinary life of George Collingridge de Tourcey a landscape painter of the late nineteenth century just ahead of the Australian impressionists When he emigrated from France to Australia he grew passionate about the possibilities of his new country and worked tirelessly to contribute to it not least for his Discovery of Australia 1895 in which on the evidence of ancient maps he argued controversially for Portuguese and Hispanic pre discovery of Australia
