Southeast Asian Muslims In The Era Of Globalization:

Southeast Asian Muslims in the Era of Globalization K. Miichi, O. Farouk, 2014-12-15 This volume investigates the appropriate position of Islam and opposing perceptions of Muslims in Southeast Asia The contributors examine how Southeast Asian Muslims respond to globalization in their particular regional national and local settings and suggest global solutions for key local issues Islam in Southeast Asia K S Nathan, Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2005 Examines the role relevance and challenges as well as the political and strategic dimensions of Islam in contemporary Southeast Asia The Minority Muslim Experience in Mainland Southeast Asia John Goodman, 2021-07-14 This book examines the lives of the Malay and Cham Muslims in Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam and examines how they co exist and live in societies that are dominated by an alternative consensus and are illiberal and non democratic in nature Focusing on two major Muslim communities in Southeast Asia both of whom live as minorities in societies that are not democratic and have a history of hostility and repression towards non conforming ideas the book explains their circumstances the choices and life decisions they have to make and how minorities can thrive in an unfriendly monocultural environment Based on original field work and research the author analyses how people live and how they adapt to societies which are not motivated by Western liberal ideals of multiculturalism The book also offers a unique perspective on how Islam develops in an environment where it is seen as alien and disloyal A useful contribution analyzing historical and post colonial experiences of Muslim minorities and how they survive and evolve over the course of state monopoly in mainland Southeast Asia this book will be of interest to academics working on Muslim minorities Asian Religion and Southeast Asian Studies Southeast Asian Education in Modern History Pia Jolliffe, Thomas Bruce, 2018-10-30 How particular has Southeast Asia s experience of educational development been and has this led to an identifiably distinct Southeast Asian approach to the provision of education Inquiry into these questions has significant consequences for our understanding of the current state of education in Southeast Asia and the challenges it has inherited This book contributes to a better understanding of the experience of educational development in Southeast Asia by presenting a collection of micro historical studies on the subject of education policy and practice in the region from the emergence of modern education to the end of the twentieth century The chapters fathom the extent to which contest over educational content in schools has occurred and establish the socio cultural political and economic bases upon which these contestations have taken place and the ways in which those forces have played out in the classrooms In doing so the book conveys a sense of the extent to which modern forms of education have been both facilitated and shaped by the region s specific configurations its unique demographic religious social environmental economic and political context Conversely they also provide examples of the sorts of obstacles that have prevented education making as full an impact on the region s recent modern transformation as might have been hoped or expected This book will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies Asian Studies education nationalism and history Routledge

Handbook of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhammad Khairudin Aljunied, 2022-03-03 This handbook explores the ways in which Islam as one of the fastest growing religions has become a global faith for both Muslims and non Muslims in Southeast Asia with its universality inclusivity and shared features with other Islamic expressions and manifestations It offers an up to date wide ranging comprehensive concise and readable introduction to the field of Islam in Southeast Asia With specific themes of pertinent contemporary relevance the contributions by experts in the field provide fresh insights into the roles of states societies scholars social movements political parties economic institutions sacred sites and other forces that structured the faith over many centuries The handbook is structured in three parts Muslim Global Circulations Marginal Narratives Refashioning Pieties This handbook stands out as a single and synergistic reference work that explores the ebb and flow of Islam seeking to decenter many existing assumptions about it in Southeast Asia It will be an indispensable resource for scholars students and policymakers working on Islam Muslims and their interactions with other communities in a plural setting

Indonesians and Their Arab World Mirjam Lücking, 2021-01-15 Indonesians and Their Arab World explores the ways contemporary Indonesians understand their relationship to the Arab world Despite being home to the largest Muslim population in the world Indonesia exists on the periphery of an Islamic world centered around the Arabian Peninsula Mirjam Lücking approaches the problem of interpreting the current conservative turn in Indonesian Islam by considering the ways personal relationships public discourse and matters of religious self understanding guide two groups of Indonesians who actually travel to the Arabian Peninsula labor migrants and Mecca pilgrims in becoming physically mobile and making their mobility meaningful This concept which Lücking calls guided mobility reveals that changes in Indonesian Islamic traditions are grounded in domestic social constellations and calls claims of outward Arab influence in Indonesia into question With three levels of comparison urban and rural areas Madura and Central Java and migrants and pilgrims this ethnographic case study foregrounds how different regional and socioeconomic contexts determine Indonesians various engagements with the Arab world

Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied, 2018-09-15 Since the early twentieth century Muslim reformers have been campaigning for a total transformation of the ways in which Islam is imagined in the Malay world One of the most influential is the author Haji Abdul Malik bin Abdul Karim Amrullah commonly known as Hamka In Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied employs the term cosmopolitan reform to describe Hamka's attempt to harmonize the many streams of Islamic and Western thought while posing solutions to the various challenges facing Muslims Among the major themes Aljunied explores are reason and revelation moderation and extremism social justice the state of women in society and Sufism in the modern age as well as the importance of history in reforming the minds of modern Muslims Aljunied argues that Hamka demonstrated intellectual openness and inclusiveness toward a whole range of thoughts and philosophies to develop his own vocabulary of reform attesting to Hamka's unique ability to function as a conduit for competing Islamic and secular groups Hamka and Islam pushes the boundaries of the expanding literature on Muslim reformism and reformist thinkers by grounding its analysis within the Malay experience and by using the concept of cosmopolitan reform in a new context Environmental and Climate Change in South and Southeast Asia, 2014-08-07 Based on pioneering research this volume on South and Southeast Asia offers a cultural studies perspective on the vast and largely uncharted domain of how local cultures are coping with climate changes and environmental crises The primary focus is on three countries that have high emission rates India Indonesia and Thailand Whereas the dominant discourse on climate largely reflects the view of Western cultures this volume adds indigenous views and practices that provide insight into Hindu Buddhist and Islamic responses Making use of textual materials fieldwork and analyses it highlights the close links between climate solutions forms of knowledge and the various socio cultural and political practices and agencies within societies The volume demonstrates that climate is global and plural Contributors are Monika Arnez Somnath Batabyal Joachim Betz Susan M Darlington Dennis Eucker R diger Haum Albertina Nugteren Marcus N sser Ravi Baghel Martin Seeger and Janice Stargardt

The Palgrave Handbook of Political Norms in Southeast Asia Gabriel Facal,Elsa Lafaye de Micheaux,Astrid Norén-Nilsson,2024-06-07 This open access handbook aims to constitute a reference point on political norm dynamics in Southeast Asia by bringing together the array of normative repertoires that frame the possibilities for citizens to participate in set agendas for make decisions in and contest not only electoral and institutional politics but also informal and imaginary political spaces It sheds light on intersecting political and social transformations and their consequences from the vantage point of political norms While chapters lay out and analyse how political norms across Southeast Asia have been shaped in successive historical phases the core of the handbook addresses current dynamics involved in defining and transforming political norms

Power-sharing in the Divided Asian Societies Adam W. Jelonek,2023-05-15 Many countries in Asia are inhabited by multi segment societies diversified in terms of race religion language and economic status They have repeatedly provided the basis for analysis of the search for consensus in the construction of a political scene that would ensure the participation in power of each group Regardless of the chosen model the distribution of power in multi segment societies has always been characterized by a state of unstable equilibrium Practical solutions constantly evolved between consociationalism centripetalism federalism In extreme cases they led to political disintegration of states or to permanent domination of one of the segments most often based on authoritarian solutions In this volume a group of scholars specializing in countries of the region try to point out the dynamics of the unstable equilibrium of power sharing in particular Asian countries and analyze the trends occurring in them in the 21st century
