Spaces Criticism Shifts Contemporary Discourses:

Spaces for Criticism Thijs Lijster, Pascal Gielen, Suzana Milevska, Ruth Sonderegger, 2015 Is art criticism losing ground because of the Internet and art blogs Do people still consider the authoritative art critic in newspapers magazines as their most important source to decide and filter what they want to see read and listen to Most recent discussions revolve around the question what is art criticism this book explores the question Where is art criticism It looks at new ways and new spaces where art critics might interact with the public works of art artists and scholars This book suggests criticism has shifted to different places and different stages a displacement not only with regard to media from journalism to blogs catalogues and such but also a displacement in the geographical and institutional sense P 4 of cover Contemporary Arts Across Political Divides Alla Myzelev, Tijen Tunali, 2023-07-04 This book explores what art and artists can do to create democratic spaces forms and languages in a world devastated by multiple crises Artists activists art historians and art curators conduct timely and critical analyses across political divides informing the public search for an agency dialogue and self representation They analyze how artists transform these social relations through aesthetic means with a shared commitment to bridging political divides and conflicts The book uses case studies from Australia India Mexico USA Turkey Palestine Israel the Balkans Russia Italy Ukraine to discuss the possibility or impossibility of building avenues for participation equitable interaction self organization as well as the common creation of the imaginary and a culture of dialogue The book pushes for a broader and more conflict oriented understanding of art and politics Contemporary Discourses of Hate and Radicalism across Space and Genres Monika Kopytowska, 2017-11-15 This unique volume brings together various academic voices and critical reflections on discursive manifestations of hate and radicalism in contemporary public discourses The authors venture into an array of socio political contexts and public spaces providing a compelling overview of similarities and divergences continuities and discontinuities outward hatred and the politics of denial the use of collective symbols and construction of individual identities Multiple genres are taken under scrutiny including blogs forums internet websites and newspaper coverage political speeches and debates news reports and broadcast interactions with a view to capturing the themes and pragma rhetorical strategies within texts abundant with radical and hateful messages In addition to examining discourse dynamics and the underlying logic of such texts the contributors to this monograph explore the ideological motivations and the consequences they might have for social actions on both an individual and collective level Highly relevant in the contemporary world divided by conflicts power and resource struggles right wing extremism and crusades against the imaginary Other the book presents state of the art interdisciplinary research that should be of interest to specialists in pragmatics rhetoric sociolinguistics discourse analysis corpus linguistics as well as media and communication studies Originally published as a special issue of Journal of Language Aggression and Conflict 3 1 2015 Crisis and Critique: Philosophical Analysis and Current Events Anne Siegetsleitner, Andreas Oberprantacher, Marie-Luisa Frick, Ulrich

Metschl,2021-06-08 Contemporary deep reaching changes whether in financial or real economy in Europe s political conditions in the context of scientific theories in the field of global environmental security or gender relations are also a challenge to philosophy The volume comprises cutting edge scholarly articles from renowned philosophers with various geographical backgrounds and from different philosophical strands Next to investigating general questions as to the relation of philosophy and critique What is philosophical critique and which philosophical concepts of critique are of importance today Where do we need it most Where are its limits the articles focus on issues like theories of democracy and modes of election the roles of emotions in the political realm challenges from a widespread discontent in society to politics and science changes to social identities and different theoretical approaches to social identity formation The book is indispensable for all who are interested in what contemporary philosophy has to say on crucial issues of our time Benjamin and Adorno on

Art and Art Criticism Thijs Lijster,2025-10-01 This book brings together two of the most important figures of twentieth century criticism Walter Benjamin and Theodor Adorno to consider a topic that was central to their thinking the place of and reason for art in society and culture Thijs Lijster takes us through points of agreement and disagreement between the two on such key topics as the relationship between art and historical experience between avant garde art and mass culture and between the intellectual and the public He also addresses the continuing relevance of Benjamin and Adorno to ongoing debates in contemporary aesthetics such as the end of art the historical meaning of art and the role of the critic The

Routledge Companion to Contemporary European Theatre and Performance Ralf Remshardt,Aneta Mancewicz,2023-08-24 This is a comprehensive overview of contemporary European theatre and performance as it enters the third decade of the twenty first century It combines critical discussions of key concepts practitioners and trends within theatre making both in particular countries and across borders that are shaping European stage practice With the geography geopolitics and cultural politics of Europe more unsettled than at any point in recent memory this book s combination of national and thematic coverage offers a balanced understanding of the continent s theatre and performance cultures Employing a range of methodologies and critical approaches across its three parts and ninety four chapters this book s first part contains a comprehensive listing of European nations the second part charts responses to thematic complexes that define current European performance and the third section gathers a series of case studies that explore the contribution of some of Europe s foremost theatre makers Rather than rehearsing rote knowledge this is a collection of carefully curated interpretive accounts from an international roster of scholars and practitioners The Routledge Companion to Contemporary European Theatre and Performance gives undergraduate and graduate students as well as researchers and practitioners an indispensable reference resource that can be used broadly across curricula Feminism and Art in Postwar Italy

Francesco Ventrella,Giovanna Zapperi,2020-10-29 A renowned art critic of the 1960s Carla Lonzi abandoned the art world in 1970 to found Rivolta Femminile a pioneering feminist collective in Italy Rather than separating the art world luminary from the activist however this book looks at the two together It demonstrates that even as Lonzi refused art she articulated how feminist spaces and communities drew strength from creativity The eleven essays in this book document the artistic and feminist circles of postwar Italy a time characterised both by radical protest and avant garde aesthetics using primary and archival sources never before translated into English They map Lonzi s deep connections to the influential Italian Arte Povera movement and explore her complicated relationship with female artists of the time such as Carla Accardi and Suzanne Santoro Carla Lonzi s written work and activism represents a crucial but previously overlooked feminist intervention in traditional art history from beyond the Anglo American canon This book is a timely and urgent addition to our understanding of radical politics separatist feminism and art criticism in the postwar period Contemporary Critical Discourse Studies Christopher Hart,Piotr Cap,2014-11-07 CDS is a multifarious field constantly developing different methodological frameworks for analysing dynamically evolving aspects of language in a broad range of socio political and institutional contexts This volume is a cutting edge interdisciplinary account of these theoretical and empirical developments It presents an up to date survey of Critical Discourse Studies CDS covering both the theoretical landscape and the analytical territories that it extends over It is intended for critical scholars and students who wish to keep abreast of the current state of the art The book is divided into two parts In the first part the chapters are organised around different methodological perspectives for CDS history cognition multimodality and corpora among others In the second part the chapters are organised around particular discourse types and topics investigated in CDS both traditionally e g issues of racism and gender inequality and only more recently e g issues of health public policy and the environment This is altogether an essential new reference work for all CDS practitioners Thai Art David Teh,2017-04-07 The interplay of the local and the global in contemporary Thai art as artists strive for international recognition and a new meaning of the national Since the 1990s Thai contemporary art has achieved international recognition circulating globally by way of biennials museums and commercial galleries Many Thai artists have shed identification with their nation but Thainess remains an interpretive crutch for understanding their work In this book the curator and critic David Teh examines the tension between the global and the local in Thai contemporary art Writing the first serious study of Thai art since 1992 and noting that art history and criticism have lagged behind the market in recognizing it he describes the competing claims to contemporaneity as staked in Thailand and on behalf of Thai art elsewhere He shows how the values of the global art world are exchanged with local ones how they do and don t correspond and how these discrepancies have been exploited How can we make sense of globally circulating art without forgoing the interpretive resources of the local national or regional context Teh examines the work of artists who straddle the local and the global becoming willing agents of assimilation yet resisting homogenization He describes the transition from an artistic subjectivity couched in terms of national community to a more qualified postnational one against the backdrop of the singular but waning sovereignty of the Thai monarchy and sustained political and economic turmoil Among the national currencies of

Thai art that Teh identifies are an agricultural symbology a Siamese poetics of distance and itinerancy and Hindu Buddhist conceptions of charismatic power Each of these currencies has been converted to a legal tender in global art signifying sustainability utopia the conceptual and the relational but what is lost and what may be gained in such exchanges

 Readers are invited to compare and contrast these different contexts and approaches Mental Spaces in Discourse and Interaction Todd Oakley, Anders Hougaard, 2008-03-06 The cognitive theory of mental spaces and conceptual integration MSCi is a twenty year old cross disciplinary enterprise that presently unfolds in academic circles on many levels of reflection and research One important area of inquiry where MSCi can be of immediate use is in the pragmatics of written and spoken discourse and interaction At the same time empirical insights from the fields of interaction and discourse provide a necessary fundament for the development of the cognitive theories of discourse This collection of seven chapters and three commentaries aims at evaluating and developing MSCi as a theory of meaning construction in discourse and interaction MSCi will benefit greatly not only from empirical support but also from clearer refinement of its methodology and philosophical foundations This volume presents the latest work on discourse and interaction from a mental spaces perspective surely to be of interest to a broad range of researchers in discourse analysis The Right to Higher Education Penny Jane Burke, 2013-06-19 The landscape of higher education has undergone change and transformation in recent years partly as a result of diversification and massification However persistent patterns of under representation continue to perplex policy makers and practitioners raising questions about current strategies policies and approaches to widening participation Presenting a comprehensive review and critique of contemporary widening participation policy and practice Penny Jane Burke interrogates the underpinning assumptions values and perspectives shaping current concepts and understandings of widening participation She draws on a range of perspectives within the field of the sociology of education including feminist post structuralism critical pedagogy and policy sociology to examine the ways in which wider societal inequalities and misrecognitions which are related to difference and diversity present particular challenges for the project to widen participation in higher education In particular the book focuses on the themes of difference and diversity to shed light on the operations of inequalities and the politics of access and participation both in terms of national and institutional policy and at the level of student and practitioner experience draws on the insights of the sociology of education to consider not only the patterns of under representation in higher education but also the politics of mis representation critiquing key discourses of widening participation interrogates assumptions behind WP policy and practice including assumptions about education being an unassailable good provides an analysis of the accounts and perspectives of students practitioners and policy makers through in depth interviews observations and reflective journal entries offers insights for future developments in the policy practice and strategies for widening participation The book will be of great use to all those working in and researching Higher Education Analysing Discourse Norman Fairclough, 2003 The book is an essential resource seeking to analyze real texts and discourse BOOK JACKET Real and Imaginary Spaces in Tom Stoppard's Plays Nevin Gürbüz-Blaich, 2025-06-02

This study benefits from the terminology of geocriticism a literary criticism that suggests an interdisciplinary approach to the exploration of literature in relation to space and place and refers to the spatial theories of Lefebvre Foucault Bakhtin Aug and Certeau as well as to Issacharoff s study of dramatic space Proposing a multidisciplinary perspective the book analyzes the mimetic and diegetic spaces in four of Tom Stoppard s plays Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead 1966 Travesties 1974 Arcadia 1993 and Indian Ink 1995 Stoppard s plays from the 1960s to the 2000s portray different spaces including urban spaces cities landscapes rooms and fictional sites thus serving as exceptional textual sources in spatial literary studies

Revolutionary Bodies K. S. Batmanghelichi, 2020-12-10 Gender and sexuality in modern Iran is frequently examined through the prism of nationalist symbols and religious discourse from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In this book Kristin Soraya Batmanghelichi takes a different approach by interrogating how normative ideas of women s bodies in state religious and public health discourses have resulted in the female body being deemed as immodest and taboo Through a diverse blend of sources a popular cultural women s journal a red light district cases studies of temporary marriages iconic public statues and an HIV AIDS advocacy organization in Tehran this work argues that conceptions of gender and sexuality have been mediated in public discourse and experienced and modified by women themselves over the past thirty years of the Islamic Republic Expanding upon existing philosophical theory technological research and scholarship on gender and sexuality in Iran this book focuses much needed attention on under studied marginalized communities such as widows living with HIV This work interrogates how bodily technologies are constructed discursively and socially in Iran and the values and perspectives which are incorporated in them Gender Space Architecture Iain Borden, Barbara Penner, Jane Rendell, 2002-09-11 This significant reader brings together for the first time the most important essays concerning the intersecting subjects of gender space and architecture Carefully structured and with numerous introductory essays it guides the reader through theoretical and multi disciplinary texts to direct considerations of gender in relation to particular architectural sites projects and ideas This collection marks a seminal point in gender and architecture both summarizing core debates and pointing toward new directions and discussions for the future

Contemporary Dance Festivals in the Former Yugoslav Space Alexandra Baybutt, 2023-06-09 This book expands the understanding of conditions defining the creation and circulation of contemporary dance that differ across Europe It focuses on festival making connected with the Balkan regional project Nomad Dance Academy NDA and highlights collective approaches to sustain a theorisation of festivals using the concepts of dissensus and imperceptible politics Drawing from anthropological methods three festivals PLESkavica Slovenia Kondenz Serbia and LocoMotion North Macedonia are explored through social political and historical currents affecting curatorial practice This book closely follows how festival makers navigate the values of international development that during and after the Yugoslav wars looked to art as part of peacekeeping and nation building processes This coincided with increasing discourse and practices of contemporary dance that gained momentum in the 1980s alongside European festivalisation I show how contemporary dance acts as an agent for transformation but also a carrier of older forms of social organisation reflecting methods and values of Yugoslav Worker Self management that are deployed by the groups creating the festivals This book will be of interest to dance scholars as well as researchers tracing the long term effects of the dissolution of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia Shifting Subjectivities in Contemporary Fiction and Film from Spain Jennifer Brady, Meredith L. Jeffers, 2018-12-14 This collection of essays analyzes shifting notions of self as represented in films and novels written and produced in Spain in the twenty first century In doing so the anthology establishes an international dialogue of multicultural perspectives on trends in contemporary Spain and serves as a useful reference for scholars and students of Spanish literature and cinema The primary avenues of exploration include representations of recovery in post crisis Spain marginalized texts and identities silenced subjectivities intersecting relationships and spaces of desire and control The individual chapters focus on major events such as the global economic crisis the tension between majority and minority cultures within Spain and the ongoing repercussions of past trauma and historical memory In doing so they build upon theories of identity subjectivity gender history memory and normativity
