Western Teacher ,1904 Making the Grade Barb Owen,2021-07-23 In the early 1900s a student with two years of high school could attend Ellensburg Normal School for one academic year pass an examination and receive a teaching certificate Elsie Hodgson did just that In response to her application the clerk of the Tarpiscan School wrote You can teach our school Sharpen up your six shooter we got some ornery kids in these parts Ready for adventure she accepted the offer and found kind hospitable people who treated her with respect and affection In Making the Grade thirteen former Kittitas country schoolmarmms reflect fondly on their days of teaching in remote locales between 1914 and 1939 Usually their classes were small with multiple grade levels in a single room and the new educators also served as janitors fire builders cooks and water haulers They reported few difficulties with discipline The schools often functioned as hubs for their communities and popular social activities included holiday programs plays spelling bees box socials picnics and dances The young women confronted numerous challenges For most it was their first job They were away from friends and family They lacked supplies For several the experience also was an introduction to country life Elsie Hodgson learned to ride a horse Helen Donald Hadley s students showed her how to harvest wild onions that grew among rocks behind her schoolhouse Emma Darter Utz rejected the idea of a field trip coyotes and cougars prowled too near her school Others contended with mischievous pet monkeys and swarms of bees Facing these ordeals with creativity dedication and pluck they enhanced the lives of many children and earned the adoration of their rural populations
