

A.P. World History Semester 1 Study Guide

As with any study process, students may find aspects of some assignments more challenging. Before class begin, we encourage every student to be completely honest about how you are progressing with your studies. PLEASE let us know if you're struggling. We're here to help. Please don't let this semester pass you by without the information.

Unit 1 covers weeks 1-10 of the syllabus. Students are encouraged to complete the chapters reading before beginning chapter 1 chapters. These initial assignments allow you to get a good idea of the history process.

For most classes the assignments are due Monday-Friday prior to class. There are two papers that are due on:

- a) Unit 1 & 2 Research Paper: Each student is encouraged to write their paper on a topic that is of interest to them. After the assignment, there will be a class discussion of the paper. The paper will be graded on the basis of the quality of the research, the quality of the writing, and the quality of the argument. The paper will be graded on the basis of the quality of the research, the quality of the writing, and the quality of the argument.
- b) Essay: Each student is encouraged to write their paper on a topic that is of interest to them. The paper will be graded on the basis of the quality of the research, the quality of the writing, and the quality of the argument.
