World Of Art Textbook:

A World of Art Henry M. Sayre, 2012 Henry Sayres art appreciation text The World of Art is an amazing introduction to the world of art Students with little background in the arts routinely reach out to Henry to share how the text has influenced their lives This is so meaningful because Henrys inspiration for A World of Art was his own students His students wanted to see themselves reflected in their textbook Henry decided to write an art appreciation textbook that represented all artists not just the Western canon found at that time in the other texts He also created a text that fostered critical thinking through looking at talking about and questioning works of art for his students The result was A World of Art and the new seventh edition continues to build on those two themes coverage of contemporary global art and a strong critical thinking framework throughout the text This edition includes new ways for students to experience art with the new MyArtsLab which includes ART 21 videos Discovering Art simulations Closer Look tours and an eText of Writing about Art also by Henry Sayre Amazon com

We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self-taught artists and how they changed American art. Artists without formal training who learned from family, community, and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art. But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self-definition permanently changed the mainstream art world. In We Are Made of Stories, Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self-taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide-ranging societal, racial, and gender-based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers. Lavishly illustrated throughout, We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings, paintings, and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty-three artists including James Castle, Thornton Dial, William Edmondson, Howard Finster, Bessie Harvey, Dan Miller, Sister Gertrude Morgan, the Philadelphia Wireman, Nellie Mae Rowe, Judith Scott, and Bill Traylor. The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self-definition, cultural heritage, struggle and joy, and inequity and achievement. At the same time, it offers a sweeping history of self-taught artists, the critical debates surrounding their art, and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race, gender, class, and ability. Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long, We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another. Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule, Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, DC. July 1, 2022 - March 26, 2023. Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology Amy Gansell, Ann Shafer, 2020-01-06 This book considers the Greatest Hits of ancient Near Eastern art and archaeology, including canonical objects, sites, and monuments from Egypt, the Levant, Turkey, Syria, Iraq, and Iran from the prehistoric era through the Classical period. Gansell, Shafer, and their contributors investigate the factors that have made these historical artifacts so well known for so long. By questioning the canon, this book allows readers to better reflect on the range of ancient Near Eastern culture and revise the canon so it can accommodate new discoveries, represent the values of heritage communities, and remain relevant to contemporary and future audiences.
