The Making of the West, Combined Volume Lynn Hunt,2012-01-04 Students of Western civilization need more than facts They need to understand the cross cultural global exchanges that shaped Western history to be able to draw connections between the social cultural political economic and intellectual happenings in a given era and to see the West not as a fixed region but a living evolving construct These needs have long been central to The Making of the West The book s chronological narrative emphasizes the wide variety of peoples and cultures that created Western civilization and places them together in a common context enabling students to witness the unfolding of Western history understand change over time and recognize fundamental relationships Read the preface

Greening in the Red Zone Keith G. Tidball,Marianne E. Krasny,2013-07-22 Creation and access to green spaces promotes individual human health especially in therapeutic contexts among those suffering traumatic events But what of the role of access to green space and the act of creating and caring for such places in promoting social health and well being Greening in the Red Zone asserts that creation and access to green spaces confers resilience and recovery in systems disrupted by violent conflict or disaster This edited volume provides evidence for this assertion through cases and examples The contributors to this volume use a variety of research and policy frameworks to explore how creation and access to green spaces in extreme situations might contribute to resistance recovery and resilience of social ecological systems

Americanism:The Fourth Great Western Religion David Gelernter,2007-06-19 What does it mean to believe in America

Why do we always speak of our country as having a mission or purpose that is higher than other nations Modern liberals have invested a great deal in the notion that America was founded as a secular state with religion relegated to the private sphere David Gelernter argues that America is not secular at all but a powerful religious idea indeed a religion in its own right Gelernter argues that what we have come to call Americanism is in fact a secular version of Zionism Not the Zionism of the ancient Hebrews but that of the Puritan founders who saw themselves as the new children of Israel creating a new Jerusalem in a new world Their faith based ideals of liberty equality and democratic governance had a greater influence on the nation s founders than the Enlightenment Gelernter traces the development of the American religion from its roots in the Puritan Zionism of seventeenth century New England to the idealistic fighting faith it has become a militant creed dedicated to spreading freedom around the world The central figures in this process were Abraham Lincoln Teddy Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson who presided over the secularization of the American Zionist idea into the form we now know as Americanism If America is a religion it is a religion without a god and it is a global religion People who believe in America live all over the world Its adherents have included oppressed and freedom loving peoples everywhere from the patriots of the Greek and Hungarian revolutions to the martyred Chinese dissidents of Tiananmen Square Gelernter also shows that anti Americanism particularly the virulent kind that is found today in Europe is a reaction against this religious conception of America on the part of those who adhere to a rival religion of pacifism and appeasement A startlingly original argument about the religious meaning of America and why it is loved and hated with so much passion at home and abroad
