Jesus, Debt, and the Lord's Prayer Douglas E Oakman, 2015-04-30 Deeply rooted in the story of Jesus of Nazareth is a concern for people mired in debt Debt was a central control mechanism for the administration of the Roman Empire Client states such as those of the Herods in Palestine were entrusted with maintenance of the established order the Pax Romana and their patronage entailed legions of the indebted Debt kept peasants at their plows and contributed to the suffering bodies and tortured minds that Jesus attempted to heal His parables and central prayer feature the forgiveness of money debts In the end his praxis to liberate people from perennial debt led to a Roman cross but his memory was kept alive at the table around which he communed with tax collectors and debtors alike National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1965

Competing for Legitimacy Salamah Magnuson, 2025-07-18 This book answers the question of why and how people form bonds with each other and with insurgent groups in fragile state contexts It develops an overarching framework depicting a political social contract presents the Grievance Driven Pathway as one way through which a reformist insurgency society contract can form and conducts a systematic comparison using two novel case studies not yet evaluated in insurgency literature the UFDR in the Central African Republic and the SLM A in Darfur Sudan The core claim is that perceptions of legitimacy across the four social contract elements lead to consent to form the intangible bond and foster societal and political trust Studying social contracts specifically the interaction between state society contracts and reformist insurgency society contracts facilitates a greater understanding of what constitutes legitimacy in the twenty first century and how perceptions of illegitimacy can lead to a breakdown of trust and the outbreak of violent conflict Realizing the Promise of 21st-Century Education Bruce Joyce, Emily Calhoun, 2011-11-23 The authors outline the steps to building a new generation of courses and schools that prepares children to learn and work in the 21st century
