

Final Exam

You will write essays for two questions total in short essay format. Your answer should address the question comprehensively, drawing on what you've learned from course material and using quotes from the readings, as appropriate. Do not use additional resources beyond assigned course materials. Do not use AI tools.

Each of your short answers should be three to five pages, double-spaced (approximately 750 – 1250 words each). Use standard fonts and font sizes. Your complete final exam should be approximately six to ten pages, double-spaced (approximately 1500 - 2500 total).

Exams are must be submitted to "Assignments" on Brightspace by Wednesday, August 14 by 11:59 pm Eastern Standard Time. Good luck!

1. Globalization introduced widespread economic, social, political, and cultural transformations -- good and bad -- in Asia. In some places, these transformations prompted cultural crises and backlash issuing from more traditional, conservative groups. Compare Lynch's "Mala's Dream" and Kang's "Surfing the Korean Wave." What caused economic upheaval in each case? What was the connection between those upheavals and crises surrounding masculinity? How and why did such crises lead to the privileging of traditional genders and sexualities against 'global' ones?
2. A notable change in contemporary Asian societies is the growing prominence of women in the public sphere, as can be seen in Joo's "Consuming Vision: The Crowds of the Korean World Cup" and Smith-Hefner's "Javanese Women and the Veil." In these cases, how did young women display their independence, gender and sexual equality, and political power through their new self-fashioned identities? How did these empowered identities differ from those of the previous generation? What did these women seek to communicate publicly through their appearance and behavior?

Values and Knowledge Edward S. Reed,Elliot Turiel,Terrance Brown,2013-06-17 It is widely recognized that a person s values will profoundly affect what that person attends to thinks about and remembers Yet despite this psychologists have only begun to study and think about the deep connections between values and knowledge This volume explores this important area in psychology by offering an overview of what is known about the developmental role of valuation in the acquisition of knowledge and also by examining a range of new ideas for understanding the intricate connection between evaluation and thinking More specifically the text provides a historical overview of philosophical and psychological theories relating the values and knowledge reviews the importance of values for infants and their caretakers in the origins of both cognition and social relations offers a provocative view of how the differences among families in their values may have profound affects on psychological development explicates the development of a personal sphere within which one strives to shape one s own values emphasizes the heterogeneity of valuation inherent in every culture and how conflicts of values are likely to be common and important to human development presents eye opening research on social cognitive limitations of average people in respecting the points of view of others and summarizes and critiques Piaget s theory of the role of values in development For practitioners in the fields of developmental and social psychology and education this volume will introduce a number of important and current issues from multiculturalism and gender to the differential roles of temperament and upbringing in development The emphasis is placed squarely on developing individuals and how they shape themselves in a world that is structured by values as well as by facts
