Assessing the Impacts of Changes in the Information Technology R&D Ecosystem National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Computer Science and Telecommunications Board, Committee on Assessing the Impacts of Changes in the Information Technology Research and Development Ecosystem, 2009-03-16 The U S information technology IT research and development R D ecosystem was the envy of the world in 1995 However this position of leadership is not a birthright and it is now under pressure In recent years the rapid globalization of markets labor pools and capital flows have encouraged many strong national competitors During the same period national policies have not sufficiently buttressed the ecosystem or have generated side effects that have reduced its effectiveness As a result the U S position in IT leadership today has materially eroded compared with that of prior decades and the nation risks ceding IT leadership to other nations within a generation Assessing the Impacts of Changes in the Information Technology R D Ecosystem calls for a recommitment to providing the resources needed to fuel U S IT innovation to removing important roadblocks that reduce the ecosystem s effectiveness in generating innovation and the fruits of innovation and to becoming a lead innovator and user of IT The book examines these issues and makes

recommendations to strengthen the U S I T R D ecosystem

Globalisation and Higher Education in the Arab Gulf

States Gari Donn, Yayha Al Manthri, 2010-05-10 In our knowledge based world the societies that prosper are the ones that generate knowledge through research through the interwoven relationship between the academe and funded research bodies and with industry They are the new centre It is strange indeed to think of the countries of the Arab Gulf States as the periphery But as the authors of this book argue very persuasively by importing a baroque arsenal of increasingly sophisticated and costly educational programmes the Arab Gulf States consume other countries knowledge and products all of which are of declining utility and sustainability Whilst universities contribute to the culture and political life of modern society the authors ask where in the Arab Gulf States is there capacity building knowledge generation and the culture of imaginative ideas that lie at the root of any civilisation By following a magistracy on a global journey through regions nations and into institutions their answers are intended to inform and to urge the Arab Gulf region into promoting education for its own self determination and even its survival
