Section 2- Programs For Development
Pages 914-919
Answer Key

1. Newly independent African nations face what two critical issues?

A) Create unified states with stable governments.

B) Achieve economic growth that would improve the standard of living of their people.

2. Colonial borders had left most African nations a patchwork of people with different cultures, languages, and histories.

3. Once freed from colonial rulers, was very many Africans felt their first loyalty was to their own ethnic group.

4. What is a one-party system? A country that has a single political party, or only one party that has any real likelihood of winning elections. Most one-party nations are authoritarian states.

5. More than half of all African nations have had military coups since independence.

6. Developing modern economies in Africa, or anywhere, means improving agriculture and developing industry.

7. (circle the correct choice) True/False: Many newly independent nations chose socialism.

8. Socialism means that the government makes economic decisions about using scarce resources.

9. Some African nations set up mixed economies with both private and state-run enterprises.

The Values Connection A. James Reichley, 2002 Values are missing from American politics But should religion and government mix A James Reichley makes the provocative case that without a strong moral basis American democracy is in trouble The author's deep background in political theory and American Constitutional history allows him to propose practical steps for a constitutionally valid relationship between religion and public life He surveys the seven major value systems currently competing for America's heart and soul and convincingly demonstrates that only one what Reichley calls transcendent idealism is the way to secure America's future He then goes an extra step by pointing out examples of successful morally based public policies addressing critical social problems ranging from drug abuse to single parenthood to school choice What's God got to do with good government In The Values Connection the answer is everything

French Foreign Policy in a Changing World Pernille Rieker, 2017-07-18 This book investigates how modern French foreign policy is practiced France finds its traditional power status challenged by internal as well as external developments Internally it faces societal challenges related to unemployment integration social exclusion Islamist terrorism and the rise of populism Externally its status is challenged by global and regional developments including the financial crises competition from emerging states EU enlargement and a more powerful Germany While the French recognise that they no longer have great power economic or military power capacities the conviction of the universal value of French civilization and culture remains strong As this book argues for France to be able to punch above its weight in international politics it must effectively promote the value of French universalism and culture This study investigates how this is reflected in modern French foreign policy by examining foreign policy practices towards selected regions countries and in relation to external and internal security Written by a senior researcher specializing in French and EU foreign and security policy this book will be an invaluable resource for practitioners of foreign policy and students of French politics international relations and European studies
