

AP WORLD HISTORY FINAL EXAM (SEMESTER 2) STUDY GUIDEEXAM TIME: _____ (Study guide due at this time!)

The AP World History Final Exam will be comprised of all material from throughout second semester. This includes notes, vocabulary, chapter readings, and homework assignments (especially any comparison charts). Below is a list of the notes we took this past semester – notes are available on the class website (<http://mrbillbrey.wordpress.com/>). The final exam will be made using the questions you find below – the final questions may be modified or changed in some ways, but will essentially be the same and will reflect the same information. If you can thoroughly answer these questions, you will be able to answer the questions on the final.

There will also be a map section on the Final – see the world map you received as Bell Work. You will be tested over the locations listed on the map.

Short-term Empires in World History Robert Rollinger, Julian Degen, Michael Gehler, 2020-06-04 The volume will focus on a comparative level on a specific group of states that are commonly labelled as empires and that we encounter through all historical periods Although they are very successful at the very beginning like most empires are this success is very ephemeral and transient The era of conquest is never followed by a period of consolidation Collapse and or reduction to much smaller dimension run as fast as the process of wide ranging conquest and expansion The volume singles out a series of such short term empires and aims to provide a methodologically clearly structured as well as a uniform and consistent approach by developing a general set of questions that guarantee the possibility to compare and distinguish This way it intends to examine not only already well established empires but also to illuminate forgotten ones
