A Companion to Global Historical Thought Prasenjit Duara, Viren Murthy, Andrew Sartori, 2014-01-21 A COMPANION TO GLOBAL HISTORICAL THOUGHT A Companion to Global Historical Thought provides an overview of the development of historical thinking from the earliest times to the present directly addressing issues of historiography in a globalized context Questions concerning the global dissemination of historical writing and the relationship between historiography and other ways of representing the past have become important not only in the academic study of history but also in public arenas in many countries With contributions from leading international scholars the book considers the problem of the global in the multiplicity of traditions of narrating the past in the global dissemination of modern historical writing and of the global as a concept animating historical imaginations It explores the different intellectual approaches that have shaped the discipline of history and the challenges posed by modernity and globalization while illustrating the shifts in thinking about time and the emergence of historical thought Complementing A Companion to Western Historical Thought this book places non Western perspectives on historiography at the center of discussion helping scholars and students alike make sense of the discipline at the start of the twenty first century

The SAGE Handbook of Islamic Studies Akbar S Ahmed, Tamara Sonn, 2010-04-22 a welcome addition to the already available introductory works on Islam The chapters of the book combine depth of analysis and erudition on a wide range of subjects Thus in a single volume one finds several superbly written papers not only on the foundations of Islam and the manifestations of Islamic culture but also on issues which are at the centre of contemporary debates among Muslims such as multiculturalism social justice democracy and diversity As a sourcebook this work is equally useful for students academicians and general readers Zafar Ishaq Ansari Director Islamic Research Institute International Islamic University

Islamic Studies is at a critical moment in its history It seeks both to maintain its rich history and to engage with other sometimes dominant cultural and political studies This tension is producing complex changes in both the theory and the practice of Islamic Studies This timely and stimulating Handbook edited by world class experts in the field provides a comprehensive guide to Islamic Studies today It examines the main issues in the field and explores the key debates It provides readers with an indispensable balanced guide to the roots of Islam and the challenges it faces in the twenty first century The Handbook includes discussions of Islam as a community of discourse and a global system Islam diaspora and multiculturalism The Qur'an today Islam as a moral and judicial system Islam and politics Islam and culture Diversities and Islam Concise level headed and penetrating this collection will be of interest to anyone who studies contemporary Islam It brings together an unparalleled collection of international scholars who illuminate some of the most urgent and complex issues in the world today

Conflict Sociology Randall Collins, Stephen K. Sanderson, 2015-12-03 This new edition is a substantial abridgment and update of Randall Collins's 1975 classic Conflict Sociology The first edition represented the most powerful and comprehensive statement of conflict theory in its time Here Sanderson has retained the core chapters and added discussions on Collins's and others work in recent years An afterword summarizes Collins's latest forays into microsociological theorizing and attempts to demonstrate how his newer microsociology and older macrosociology are connected

The Black Swan: Second Edition Nassim Nicholas Taleb, 2010-05-11 The most influential book of the past seventy five years a groundbreaking exploration of everything we know about what we don't know now with a new section called On Robustness and Fragility A black swan is a highly improbable event with three principal characteristics It is unpredictable it carries a massive impact and after the fact we concoct an explanation that makes it appear less random and more predictable than it was The astonishing success of Google was a black swan so was 9 11 For Nassim Nicholas Taleb black swans underlie almost everything about our world from the rise of religions to events in our own personal lives Why do we not acknowledge the phenomenon of black swans until after they occur Part of the answer according to Taleb is that humans are hardwired to learn specifics when they should be focused on generalities We concentrate on things we already know and time and time again fail to take into consideration what we don't know We are therefore unable to truly estimate opportunities too vulnerable to the impulse to simplify narrate and categorize and not open enough to rewarding those who can imagine the impossible For years Taleb has studied how we fool ourselves into thinking we know more than we actually do We restrict our thinking to the irrelevant and inconsequential while large events continue to surprise us and shape our world In this revelatory book Taleb will change the way you look at the world and this second edition features a new philosophical and empirical essay On Robustness and Fragility which offers tools to navigate and exploit a Black Swan world Taleb is a vastly entertaining writer with wit irreverence and unusual stories to tell He has a polymathic command of subjects ranging from cognitive science to business to probability theory Elegant startling and universal in its applications The Black Swan is a landmark book itself a black swan The Asiatic Review, 1915 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien L. Joseph, 2020-04-15 In Revolutionary Change and Democratic Religion Celucien Joseph provides a fresh and careful reexamination of Haiti's intellectual history by focusing on the ideas and writings of five prominent thinkers and public intellectuals Toussaint Louverture Joseph Antenor Firmin Jacques Roumain Dantes Bellegarde and Jean Price Mars The book articulates a twofold argument First of all Haiti has produced a strong intellectual tradition from the revolutionary era to the postcolonial present and that Haitian thought is not homogeneous and monolithic Joseph puts forth the idea that the general interweaving themes of rhetoric the race concept race vindication universal emancipation religious pluralism secular humanism the particular and the universal and cosmopolitanism are representative of Haiti's intellectual tradition Secondly the book also contends that Haitian intellectuals have produced a religious discourse in the twentieth century that could be phrased religious metissage The religious ideas of these thinkers have been shaped by various forces ideologies religious traditions and philosophical schools In the same way the religious experience of the Haitian people should be understood in terms of conflicting heterodox and pluralistic manifestations of religious piety as the people in Haiti reacted to the crisis of slavery Western colonialism and imperialism and the arrogance of race in modernity in their striving to reposition themselves within the framework of universal and human metanarratives The book departs from the dominant contemporary Vodou scholarship that is often characteristic of North American and Western studies on the religious life of the Haitian people and Haitian thinkers
