Kronert, 2012-10 The public education system in New York is in turmoil Is this because of leadership in Albany the No Child Left Behind Act parents who fail in their effort to raise children properly or is it just the fault of kids who show little to no respect for authority peers or themselves Or should we accept the most popular place of blame The teacher is the problem The former world where teachers were revered looked up to by children and parents and respected because of the crucial role they played is all but a forgotten memory Today parents and school administrators often demonize teachers and are openly critical of the tenure system which protects their positions seemingly forever Riverton School District has lots of issues There is rampant bullying and peer intimidation Some kids are even afraid to come to school The disrespect and outrageous behavior runs not only unchecked but leadership in Albany wants to see even less discipline and consequences for the young perpetrators Brendan Moss teaches eighth grade math at Riverton As a widower and devoted father of three he does his best to assist young people but the school superintendent wants to use the veteran math teacher as a test case to overturn the right to lifetime tenure Don't Blame the Messenger addresses school policies State Department of Education leadership bullying and why a teacher's tenure should be maintained and viewed as something good for kids and the process of learning The author works in the trenches where truth and reality collide Opinions on what is wrong with public education vary Don't Blame the Messenger is written by a teacher who knows how it really is Resources in Education, 1996

Norfolk and Western Magazine, 1960 The Art of Law Teaching Lutz-Christian Wolff, 2020-12-07 Written by an award winning professor with over 25 years of experience this book explains comprehensively the different facets of law teaching from the law teacher's perspective It uniquely covers numerous topics which have been ignored by the legal education literature so far but which are of immense importance for the success of law students law schools and last but not least the day to day work of law teachers themselves These topics include the goals of law teaching the factors that lead to successful law teaching special characteristics of good law teachers different ways of preparing for in class success face to face versus online teaching the in class teaching experience assessments teaching evaluations the design of new courses and programmes the teacher student and the teacher teacher relationship the importance of teaching administration as well as the future of law teaching in the digital age The author approaches various themes from the viewpoint of his own experience He tells his very personal stories of classroom success and failure of enthusiasm fun and disappointments when dealing with law students of accomplishments and frustrations when considering learning outcomes and of surprises when dealing with red tape He thus allows the readership to grasp different aspects of law teaching in a very hands own way and facilitates the understanding of the underlying often rather complex human to human relationships This book should be in the bookshelf of any law teacher As it covers a wide spectrum of so far unexplored legal education issues it is also an invaluable source at the start of a law teaching career but also for established law teachers who wish to reflect on their own teaching approaches A rich body of cross references to the existing literature makes the book a powerful tool for research on any aspect of legal education Last but not least the author s ironic sense of himself and of the law teacher profession makes the book a very entertaining read for anybody who always wanted to know what law teaching really is and is not about New
