Health Care Transition Albert C. Hergenroeder, Constance M. Wiemann, 2018-05-03 This comprehensive book

thoroughly addresses all aspects of health care transition of adolescents and young adults with chronic illness or disability and includes the framework tools and case based examples needed to develop and evaluate a Health Care Transition HCT planning program that can be implemented regardless of a patient's disease or disability. Health Care Transition Building a Program for Adolescents and Young Adults with Chronic Illness and Disability is a uniquely inclusive resource incorporating youth, young adult, caregiver, and pediatric and adult provider voices and perspectives. Part I of the book opens by defining Health Care Transition, describing the urgent need for comprehensive transition planning, barriers to HCT, and then offering a framework for developing and evaluating health care transition programs. Part II focuses on the anatomic and neurochemical changes that occur in the brain during adolescence and young adulthood and how they affect function and behavior. Part III covers the perspectives of important participants in the HCT transition process: youth and young adults, caregivers, and both pediatric and adult providers. Each chapter in Part IV addresses a unique aspect of developing HCT programs. Part V explores various examples of successful transition from the perspective of five key participants in the transition process: patients, caregivers, pediatric providers, adult providers, and third-party payers. Related financial matters are covered in part VI, while Part VII explores special issues such as HCT and the medical home, international perspectives, and potential legal issues. Models of HCT programs are presented in Part VIII, utilizing an example case study. Representing perspectives from over 75 authors and more than 100 medical centers in North America and Europe, Health Care Transition Building a Program for Adolescents and Young Adults with Chronic Illness and Disability is an ideal resource for any clinician, policy maker, caregiver, or hospitalist working with youth in transition.

The Essential School Counselor in a Changing Society Jeannine R. Studer, 2014-02-07 Jeannine R. Studer's The Essential School Counselor in a Changing Society offers a practical approach to helping students understand the methods and standards in contemporary school counseling. Integrating the new ASCA model as well as the CACREP Standards across all areas of school counseling practice, this core text provides a unique and relevant perspective on the 21st-century school counselor. Studer focuses on ethics and ethical decision making as well as contemporary issues faced by today's counselor, such as crisis response, career counseling, and advisement, group counseling, advocacy, and collaboration. The text begins with coverage of school counseling foundations, addresses intervention and prevention, and devotes the final section to enhancing academics through a positive school culture. Not only does this text address the CACREP standards for school counseling, but it also provides excellent examples and applications of school counseling within the ASCA National Model framework. Karen D. Rowland, Mercer University. This text is a valuable contribution to the profession, addressing the multi-dimensional and complex roles and responsibilities of the 21st-century school counselor. It is a foundational text that counselor educators can utilize throughout a master's degree program in mentoring interns into the profession. Diana L. Stephens, California Lutheran University. The Christian Advocate, 1916.
