Providing the first state-by-state analysis of major cost and financing issues, the book is based on data gathered from one of the most comprehensive surveys conducted in recent times in these states which was specifically commissioned for this book. The survey covered 120 000 households and a thousand schools spread over 91 districts in eight states. Written by leading educational economists, the original essays in this volume analyse the major cost and financing issues in elementary schooling in seven of the eight states surveyed: Assam, Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal. They identify recent initiatives made by the governments of these seven states, systematically scrutinise the pattern of the public spending in elementary education, examine enrolment in government schools and the quality of education that they impart, study household expenditure on schooling, the costs to parents of sending children to school and compare government schools with private schools, showing how the private sector has begun to take over the what should be the responsibility of the government, particularly in the poorer states. TEACHER EDUCATION: CONTEMPORARY ISSUES, PRACTICES & PROSPECTS Dr. Nandini Banerjee, Dr. Amarnath Das, Right to Education in India Praveen Jha, P. Geetha Rani, 2015-12-14 This is one of the first volumes to comprehensively discuss resource constraints and institutional challenges in realizing the Fundamental Right to Education (RTE) in India. It looks at various aspects of the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA), the primary vehicle to implement RTE, and a flagship programme to universalize elementary education in the country. The book presents a comparative perspective across regions and states and evaluates the effective delivery of SSA at the grassroots level. Using rich empirical data not yet available in the public domain, it provides valuable lessons for the planning and financing arrangements of SSA/RTE between the centre and the states and towards understanding access, equity and quality of education. The work will be a major resource for scholars and researchers of

Education and Inequality in India Manabi Majumdar, Jos Mooij, 2012-10-02 Universalization of primary education has been high on the policy agenda in India This book looks at the reproduction of social inequalities within the educational system in India and how this is contested in different ways It examines whether the concept of education for all is just a mechanically conceived policy target to chasing enrolment and attendance or whether it is a larger social goal and a deeper political statement about the need for attacking entrenched social inequalities Drawing on original data collected in the two states of Andhra Pradesh and West Bengal the authors present the multiple ways in which social class impinges on the educational system educational processes and educational outcomes The book goes on to explore issues around autonomy and accountability via an analysis of the position of teachers within the educational hierarchy and by looking at the various possibilities of making teachers accountable Recommendations related to the necessity for a larger debate and normative framework are made including whether private schools should play a role and whether it is necessary to move from government action and responsibilities to a broader concept of public action The book presents an interesting contribution for students and scholars of South Asian studies as well as Education and Public Policy studies
