

The background of the cover is a photograph of a baseball field, viewed from an elevated angle. A semi-transparent economic graph is overlaid on the field. The graph features a vertical axis and a horizontal axis. A downward-sloping line, likely representing a demand or marginal revenue curve, is drawn across the field. Several points are marked on this line with small black dots. A vertical line segment is drawn from one of these points down to the horizontal axis. The title text is positioned in the upper right quadrant, partially overlapping the graph and the field image.
