Century Noreena Hertz,2021-02-02 A bold hopeful and thought provoking account by one of the world's leading thinkers The Observer of how we built a lonely world how the pandemic accelerated the problem and what we must do to come together again A compelling vision for how we can bridge our many divides at this time of great change and disruption Arianna Huffington founder and CEO of Thrive Global An important new book The Economist NEXT BIG IDEA CLUB NOMINEE NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY WIRED UK AND THE DAILY TELEGRAPH Loneliness has become the defining condition of the twenty first century It is damaging our health our wealth and our happiness and even threatening our democracy Never has it been more pervasive or more widespread but never has there been more that we can do about it Even before a global pandemic introduced us to terms like social distancing the fabric of community was unraveling and our personal relationships were under threat And technology isn't the sole culprit Equally to blame are the dismantling of civic institutions the radical reorganization of the workplace the mass migration to cities and decades of neoliberal policies that have placed self interest above the collective good This is not merely a mental health crisis Loneliness increases our risk of heart disease cancer and dementia Statistically it's as bad for our health as smoking fifteen cigarettes a day It's also an economic crisis costing us billions annually And it's a political crisis as feelings of marginalization fuel divisiveness and extremism around the world But it's also a crisis we have the power to solve Combining a decade of research with firsthand reporting Noreena Hertz takes us from a how to read a face class at an Ivy League university to isolated remote workers in

London during lockdown from renting a friend in Manhattan to nursing home residents knitting bonnets for their robot caregivers in Japan Offering bold solutions ranging from compassionate AI to innovative models for urban living to new ways of reinvigorating our neighborhoods and reconciling our differences The Lonely Century offers a hopeful and empowering vision for how to heal our fractured communities and restore connection in our lives

Public Space and the Ideology of Place in American Culture, 2009-01-01 We typically take public space for granted as if it has continuously been there yet public space has always been the expression of the will of some agency person or institution who names the space gives it purpose and monitors its existence And often its use has been contested These new essays written for this volume approach public space through several key questions Who has the right to define public space How do such places generate and sustain symbolic meaning Is public space unchanging or is it subject to our subjective perception Do we given the public nature of public space have the right to subvert it These eighteen essays including several case studies offer convincing evidence of a spatial turn in American studies They argue for a re visioning of American culture as a history of place making and the instantiation of meaning in structures boundaries and spatial configurations Chronologically the subjects range from Pierre L Enfant s initial majestic conceptualization of Washington D C to the post modern realization that public space in the U S is increasingly a matter of waste Topics range from parks to cities to small towns from open air museums to airports encompassing the commercial marketing of place as well as the subversion and re possession of public space by the disenfranchised Ultimately public space is variously imagined as the site of social and political contestation and of aesthetic change
