State Building And Conflict Resolution In The Caucasus:

State Building and Conflict Resolution in the Caucasus Charlotte Hille, 2010-04-16 State building processes in the Caucasus are influenced by the culture of the Caucasus and previous experiences with state building after World War I The conflicts which erupted at the time have influenced territorial claims The role of foreign powers as Russia the United States Turkey Germany is considerable in the region Divide and rule policy of Joseph Stalin is another factor which describes existing animosities between peoples in the Caucasus Since 1989 a transition process or state building process has started in the North and the South Caucasus This book gives an in depth analysis of the backgrounds of the conflicts including activities by IGO s and NGOs and the developments in international law with regard to state building practice Abkhazia: 1992-2022 Metin Sonmez, 2022-10-12 The 14th of August 2022 is the 30th anniversary of the start of the war between the Georgians and the Abkhazians in the decades long dispute over ownership of the small territory known to the autochthonous Abkhazians as Apsny to the Georgians as apxazeti and to most of the world as Abkhazia For much of the world the territory remains either a thoroughly unknown or at best poorly known country and for many a disputed region This project is the continuation of the earlier Reflections on Abkhazia 14 August 1992 2012 which was completed 10 years ago It aims to bring together different points of view on Abkhazia and the Georgian Abkhazian conflict The authors were given complete freedom regarding the content of their texts The views they express in their contributions for this project do not necessarily reflect the views of the AbkhazWorld com website The texts have been listed alphabetically according to the names of the authors

the independent newspaper Echo of Abkhazia and author of the Ekho Kavkaza Abkhazia Vladislav Bugera Philosopher political publicist and independent left wing activist Russia Zaira Khiba Linguist Translator United Kingdom Metin Sonmez Comp Ed George B Hewitt Ed Georgian Internally Displaced People Hazar Ege Gürsoy Erdenay, 2025-02-27 This book explores the construction of Internally Displaced Persons IDPs identity as a social group in Georgia framed through Tajfel and Turner s Social Identity Theory It examines the key factors shaping the identity of Georgian IDPs displaced by ethnic conflicts in two major migration waves the early 1990s and 2008 from Abkhazia and South Ossetia Divided into two parts the study first looks at the historical context of the ethnic conflicts and the state s responses to displacement The second part focuses on the formation of IDP identity analyzing how external definitions by the host community have perpetuated devaluation throughout the post Soviet period It also highlights the self perceptions characteristics and tactics that have helped transform IDP identity from a devalued label to a more positive and resilient social identity Discordant Neighbours: A Reassessment of the Georgian-Abkhazian and Georgian-South Ossetian Conflicts B. George Hewitt, 2013-03-27 The 2008 Georgian Russian war focused the world s attention on the Caucasus South Ossetia and Abkhazia had been de facto independent since the early 1990s However Russia s granting of recognition on 26 August 2008 changed regional dynamics The Caucasus is one of the most ethnically diverse areas on earth and the conflicts examined here present their own complexities This book sets the issues in their historical and political contexts and discusses potential future problems This volume is distinguished from others devoted to the same themes by the extensive use the author a Georgian specialist makes of Georgian sources inaccessible to most commentators His translated citations thus cast a unique and revealing light on the interethnic relations that have fuelled these conflicts Clans and Democratization: Chechnya, Albania, Afghanistan and Iraq Charlotte Hille, 2020-05-06 In Clans and Democratization Charlotte Hille investigates clan societies in Afghanistan Iraq Albania and Chechnya She explores and compares the values of clans with those in Western democratic states while focusing at conflict resolution and democratization Based on theory and practice this book provides tools to facilitate democratic state building in clan based societies The Politics of Memory in Post-Authoritarian Transitions, Volume One Joanna Marszałek-Kawa, Joanna Piechowiak-Lamparska, Anna Ratke-Majewska, 2017-01-06 History is a powerful tool in the hands of politicians and can be a destructive weapon since power over the past is the power to decide who is a hero and who is a traitor Tradition the memory of ancestors and the experience of previous generations are the keys that unlock the door to citizens minds and allow certain ideas visions and political programs to flourish However can history be a proper political weapon during democratisation processes when the past is clearly separated from the present Are the new order and society founded on the basis of some interpretation of the past or rather are they founded only with reference to the imagined future of the nation This book explores such questions through a detailed description of the use of remembrance policies during political transformations It discusses how interpretations of the past served the accomplishment of transitional objectives in countries as varied as Chile Estonia Georgia Poland South Africa and Spain The book is a unique journey through different parts of the world different cultures and different political systems investigating how history was remembered and forgotten by certain democratic leaders Individual chapters discuss how governments remembrance policies were used to create a new citizen to change a political culture and to justify the vision of the society promoted by the new elites They explain why some difficult topics were avoided by politicians and why sometimes there was no transitional justice or punishment of the leaders of the authoritarian state The book will be of interest to anyone wishing to explore policies of remembrance democratisation and the role of memory in contemporary societies State-Building as Lawfare Egor Lazarev,2023-02-09 State Building as Lawfare explores the use of state and non state legal systems by both politicians and ordinary people in postwar Chechnya The book addresses two interrelated puzzles why do local rulers tolerate and even promote non state legal systems at the expense of state law and why do some members of repressed ethnic minorities choose to resolve their everyday disputes using state legal systems instead of non state alternatives The book documents how the rulers of Chechnya promote and reinvent customary law and Sharia in order to borrow legitimacy from tradition and religion increase autonomy from the metropole and accommodate communal authorities and former rebels At the same time the book shows how prolonged armed conflict disrupted the traditional social hierarchies and pushed some Chechen women to use state law spurring state formation from below Transitional Justice and the Former Soviet Union Cynthia M. Horne,Lavinia Stan,2018-02-22 A comprehensive overview of the efforts of state and non state actors in the former Soviet Union to redress the past Cultural Contestation Jeroen Rodenberg,Pieter Wagenaar,2018-07-04 Heritage practices often lead to social exclusion as such practices can favor certain values over others In some cases exclusion from a society s symbolic landscape can spark controversy or rouse emotion so much so that they result in cultural contestation Examples of this abound but few studies explicitly analyze the role of government in these instances In this volume scholars from a variety of academic backgrounds examine the various and often conflicting roles governments play in these processes and governments do play a role They act as authors and authorizers of the symbolic landscape from which societal groups may feel excluded Yet they also often attempt to bring parties together and play a mitigating role Russian-Ottoman Borderlands Lucien J. Frary,Mara Kozelsky,2014-08-12 During the nineteenth century as violence population dislocations and rebellions unfolded in the borderlands between the Russian and Ottoman Empires European and Russian diplomats debated the Eastern Question or What should be done about the Ottoman Empire Russian Ottoman Borderlands brings together an international group of scholars to show that the Eastern Question was not just one but many questions that varied tremendously from one historical actor and moment to the next The Eastern Question or from the Ottoman perspective the Western Question became the predominant subject of international affairs until the end of the First World War Its legacy continues to resonate in the Balkans the Black Sea region and the Caucasus today The contributors address ethnicity religion popular attitudes violence dislocation and mass migration economic rivalry and great power diplomacy Through a variety of fresh approaches they examine the consequences of the Eastern Question in the lives of those peoples it most affected the millions living in the Russian and Ottoman Empires and the borderlands in between The EU and Conflict Resolution Nathalie Tocci,2007-05-22 Through the study of five ethno political conflicts lying on or just beyond Europe's borders this book analyzes the impact and effectiveness of EU foreign policy on conflict resolution Conflict resolution features strongly as an objective of the European Union's foreign policy In promoting this aim the EU's geographical focus has rested primarily in its beleaguered backyard to the south and to the east Taking a strong comparative approach Nathalie Tocci explores the principal determinants of conflict dynamics in Cyprus Turkey Serbia Montenegro Israel Palestine and Georgia in order to assess the impact of EU contractual ties on them The volume includes topical analysis based on first hand experience in depth interviews with all the relevant actors and photography in ongoing conflict areas in the Middle East the Eastern Mediterranean the Balkans and the Caucasus This revealing study shows that the gap between EU potential and effectiveness often rests in the specific manner in which the EU collectively chooses to conduct its contractual relations The EU and Conflict Resolution will be of interest to all readers who wish to acquire an excellent understanding of the EU's impact on conflict contexts and will appeal to scholars of European politics security studies and conflict resolution The International Politics of Eurasia: v. 5: State Building and Military Power in Russia and the New States of Eurasia Bruce Parrott,2016-09-16 First Published in 1996 This ambitious ten volume series develops a comprehensive analysis of the evolving world role of the post Soviet successor states Each volume considers a different factor influencing the relationship between internal politics and international relations in Russia and in the western and southern tiers of newly independent states The contributors were chosen not only for their recognized expertise but also to ensure a stimulating diversity of perspectives and a dynamic mix of approaches This book is the fifth in a projected series of ten volumes produced by the Russian Littoral Project The International Politics of Eurasia: v. 5: State Building and Military Power in Russia and the New States of Eurasia S. Frederick Starr,Karen Dawisha,2024-11-01 This ambitious ten volume series develops a comprehensive analysis of the evolving world role of the post Soviet successor states Each volume considers a different factor influencing the relationship between internal politics and international relations in Russia and in the western and southern tiers of newly independent states The collapse of the Soviet Union and the discrediting of Marxism Leninism as a source of political legitimacy have prompted a search for fresh principles of political organization that will shape the nature of political culture in all the post Soviet countries This volume looks at military power and state building Dreams of Emancipation Norihiro Naganawa,2025-09-30 Given Russia's invasion of Ukraine why do emancipation messages that emanated from Russia count Navigating multilingual sources this book addresses the role of Russia's multiethnic society and borderlands in generating kaleidoscopic repercussions of its 1917 Revolution It also sees the USSR's interactions with its neighboring countries as a crucible of the Soviet modality of communism The book shows how the collapse of the Russian Empire further released a vast range of liberationist projects and dreams far from confined to the goals of Bolshevism in its borderlands and beyond and how the Soviet Union became a highly ambiguous source of emancipatory inspiration in the long twentieth century overshadowing today's global politics

De Facto States in Eurasia Tomáš Hoch,Vincenc

Kopeček,2019-07-17 This book explores the phenomenon of de facto states in Eurasia states such as Abkhazia Nagorno Karabakh and the Transnistrian Moldovan Republic It examines how they are formed what sustains them and how their differing development trajectories have unfolded It argues that most of these de facto states have been formed with either direct or indirect support from Russia but they all have their own internal logic and are not simply puppets in the hands of a powerful patron The book provides detailed case studies and draws out general patterns and compares present day de facto states with de facto states which existed in the past

Territorial Disputes and Conflict Management Rongxing

Guo,2012-01-25 This book examines the problems of boundary demarcation and its impact on territorial disputes and offers techniques to manage and resolve the resulting conflicts Historically most civil conflicts and internal wars have been directly related to boundary or territorial disputes Cross border discord directly affects the sustenance and welfare of local populations often resulting in disease impoverishment and environmental damage as well as creating refugees Although the impact of territorial disputes is great they can often be settled through bilateral and sometimes multilateral agreements or international arbitration This book sets out to probe into the problems of existing techniques on boundary demarcation and to test their possible impacts on boundary and territorial disputes Various factors and their influences on cross border tensions are tested either qualitatively or quantitatively After close examination of dozens of the most significant cases the book presents various alternative solutions to the achievement of cross border cooperation in disputed territories An art of avoiding war is included within the book comprising six key schemes and five negotiating techniques The comparative advantages costs and benefits of each of these is analyzed and evaluated This book will help guide practitioners in territorial disputes and will be of interest to students of conflict management international security peace and conflict studies political violence and IR in general

Conflict Resolution in De Facto States Sebastian Relitz,2022-07-22

This book explores the challenges of conflict resolution in protracted conflicts and conceptualises and analyses the practice of engagement without recognition in de facto states Increasingly engagement without recognition is seen as a promising approach to conflict resolution in de facto states but little is known about its implementation and results This book addresses that lacuna and develops an analytical model to assess international engagement focusing on implementation on the ground This model enables a comprehensive analysis of international engagement's scope areas and methods Further the book also explores the context of engagement in de facto states which has a significant impact on its implementation and results In this way the book also advances our understanding of the opportunities obstacles and limitations of engagement without recognition The analysis is based on the current EU engagement in Abkhazia and draws from other cases in the Caucasus Eastern Europe and beyond and finds that international engagement with de facto states is more comprehensive and multifaceted than previously known However it also faces some distinct challenges and produces modest results Finally the book provides practical recommendations on how to better utilise the peacebuilding potential of engagement without recognition This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution statehood peace and conflict studies and international relations

Europe's Next Avoidable War M. Kambeck, S. Ghazaryan, 2013-03-05 An international and interdisciplinary group of experts shed light upon the Nagorno Karabakh conflict today how it evolved and likely scenarios Taking into account a changed political landscape including the EU's new foreign policy instruments they also make concrete policy proposals to make war less likely

Political Economy of Statebuilding Mats Berdal, 2017-07-05 This volume examines and evaluates the impact of international statebuilding interventions on the political economy of post conflict countries over the past 20 years While statebuilding today is typically discussed in the context of peacebuilding and stabilisation operations the current phase of interest in external interventions to rebuild and strengthen governmental institutions can be traced back to the good governance policies of the International Financial Institutions IFIs in the early 1990s These sought political changes and improvements in the quality of governance in countries that were subject to or were seeking support under IFI designed structural adjustment programmes The focus of this book is specifically on state building efforts in conflict affected countries countries that are emerging or have recently emerged from periods of war and violent conflict The interventions covered in the present volume fall into three broad and overlapping categories International administrations and transformative occupations East Timor Iraq and Kosovo Complex peace operations Afghanistan Burundi Haiti and Sudan Governance and state building programmes conducted in the context of economic assistance Georgia and Macedonia This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding humanitarian intervention post conflict reconstruction political economy international organisations and IR Security Studies in general

Non-traditional Security Threats and Regional Cooperation in the Southern Caucasus Mustafa Aydın, 2011 This book contains 16 papers presented at the workshop Non Traditional Security Threats and Regional Cooperation in the Southern Caucasus which was held in Istanbul Turkey in October 2009 Whilst the Cold War did not exclude the existence of other threats such as environmental hazards organized crime terrorism economic instability and illegal immigration it is only since the emphasis on East West rivalry and the specter of nuclear confrontation between the two blocs have diminished that these have become articulated as major sources of concern for global security
