

THANK YOU LETTER FROM COACH TO PLAYERS

[DATE]

Dear [RECIPIENT NAME],

This season has been challenging for us. We struggled with our losses at the beginning but finished the season off with big success. We could not have achieved this year's accomplishments without your patience, hard work, perseverance, dedication, and teamwork. All the work has paid off, and I cannot thank all of you more for your efforts.

Since the beginning of the season, I saw all of you put in the amount of dedication I have never seen in this school before. You were determined to improve each week and the results were evident when we had our [NUMBER] game winning streak.

I thank you all for your patience. You were always willing to learn and challenge yourself each day with new skills. And despite my harsh lectures, you were always humble enough to see the lessons of each of your failures.

This team is indeed special. I will remember this team for its outstanding effort and how it provided this school and the whole town of [STATE] a strong sense of pride. This truly is a season worth remembering.

Regards,
