The African Mask:

African Masks James Gaasch, 2016-11-29 The photographs of the African masks and carvers in this book represent the Bwa or Bwaba Winiamas and Mossi peoples of Burkina Faso and the Bamana and Dogon peoples of Mali Gaasch acquired many of these masks in the villages where they were carved When possible he interviewed the village carvers the creators of these dancing masks Gaasch's interviews with the carvers underscore the cultural context where traditional African world views persist And to the extent possible they give voice to the masks to reveal their own significance The masks are in our times signifiers of cultures increasingly under siege hostage to religious fanaticism or to impoverishing globalization This small book reaffirms the rights of these masks to continue to dance

The African Mask Janet E. Rupert, 2005-04 Twelve year old Layo a Yoruba girl living in the area of eleventh century Africa which is now Nigeria attempts to reject the man who has been chosen to be her husband

An Introduction to the African Mask for Young People Charlene Graves, 1983

The Art of African Masks Carol Finley, 1999-01-01 Describes how different types of masks are made and used in Africa and how they reflect the culture of their ethnic groups

African Faces Hugo Maertens, Herman Burssens, Marnix Neerman, 2009

This beautiful book was born out of the passion and artistic insight of Marnix Neerman and Hugo Martens One hundred and twenty eight masks have been photographed in such a unique style that their artistic nature is revealed to the utmost Each mask has been shot from the front and from the rear and detail shots reveal each mask as an almost autonomous work of art And yet these masks are not considered works of art in their countries of origin but rather tools that have a function and a meaning in socio religious life Many of these masks have never been displayed or published before and come from reference collections such as the Museum for Middle Africa in Tervuren Belgium the Ethnographic Museum in Antwerp and private collections in Belgium France UK and USA African Faces was produced in cooperation with the archive of the Yale University Tribal Art magazine Parcours des Mondes in Paris and many other experts and will become a future reference work when it comes to the African mask the powerful photographs accentuate the artistic value of the masks like never before

Text in English French

AUTHOR Marnix Neerman is a private collector of African masks and a dealer in contemporary art Herman Burssens is emeritus professor of African art and cultural history at the University of Ghent

Absence of the African Mask in Western Museums Samuel Obeng Berkoh, 2015 There is a dearth of representation of the African mask that exists in the cultural spaces of Western museums This is not merely a colonial legacy but a contemporary occurrence that museums grapple with Accordingly several African theorists have long implied that there is an absence of the African mask in Western museums and public displays of social pluralism and hybridity These nascent hypotheses severally reflect the sharp dichotomy existing between their Africans and Western perception of museum display Such thinking is fueled by Western misunderstandings of African arts and crafts contextualized within media platforms as discrepant and ideologically insignificant The complex societal roles of these artifacts masks and the lives of their crafters

are largely out of the range of scholarly discourse in museum Scholars such as Frederick Lamp Susan Vogel Robert Farris Thompson and Herbert Cole are among a group of theorists who scrutinize the notion of absence examining it under the umbrellas of performance motion Farris 1974 involvement Gallery 2004 and original context Vogel 1991 15 They stand in contrast to certain Western perceptions that categorize such craftsmanship under unflattering labels like Primitive Art 121 or bucolic archaic Eisenhofer 2010 13 art Hence the inherent dialogues of the artifacts themselves and their purveyors who are in fact cultural agents are subjected to intellectual oblivion These interventions from theorist have had enormous impression on museum curators In the past there have been some curatorial measures Savage 2008 that attempted to atone for the absence and to bring in some presence These efforts have come from theorist artists and curators However there is still more to do due to the complex nature of the mask and the new environment it finds itself in The objective of the study is to locate important gaps in current discourse on Western museums and public spaces subjecting them to critique and making significant design contributions My design solutions relies on digital based animation and motion graphic techniques with the intent of producing video based installations The designs re embody the visual emotional and spiritual content of the African masks for a contemporary audience The potential of digital media i3J video and audio which incorporates motion graphics and digital effects has been enhanced worldwide to narrate the stories we enjoy in movies This can be exploited to narrate the stories behind the African masks from the African perspective My design solution employs 20 30 audio video and animation to design a user experience that create lasting impression on the audience It employs a synthesis of the African perspective which utilizes the conceptual frameworks in a critical discourse with the conventional Western theoretical and aesthetic knowledge The end results are video installations through projections some of which offer a certain level of user interactions

The African Mask, Class Set. Level 2 (A1/A2) Günter Gerngross, 2007-01 African Masks, 2013 These teacher materials emphasize African cosmology which sees an essential division between the village and the bush or wilderness The village is the human world of law family and agriculture The bush is the domain of wild animals and powerful unruly spirits Masquerades allow the villages to temporarily harness the power of the bush spirits to use for the purposes of civilization The Cleveland Museum of Art houses many masks from West Africa magnificent objects that form the core of this lesson We appreciate these masks and headdresses for their symbolism and the abstract beauty of their design However the African art of the mask extends far beyond the mask itself It is also the performance of music dance and storytelling that come together in the masquerade Both the teacher materials and the suggested extensions encourage the students to participate in elements of the masquerade Movement song and storytelling put the objects in context African Masks James Gaasch, 2019-05-21 The photographs of the African masks and carvers in this book represent the Bwa or Bwaba Winiamba and Mossi peoples of Burkina Faso and the Bamana and Dogon peoples of Mali Gaasch acquired many of these masks in the villages where they were carved When possible he interviewed the village carvers the creators of these dancing masks

Gaasch's interviews with the carvers underscore the cultural context where traditional African world views persist. And to the extent possible they give voice to the masks to reveal their own significance. The masks are in our times signifiers of cultures increasingly under siege, hostage to religious fanaticism or to impoverishing globalization. This small book reaffirms the rights of these masks to continue to dance.

Spirits Speak Peter Stepan, 2005. Spirits Speak presents a selection of the most important African masks found in major museums and renowned private collections around the globe, an overview such as has never been compiled in this way before. Artistic mastery, charisma, age and authenticity were paramount selection criteria, with only the very best examples representing each well-known mask type. An introductory essay elucidates the conceptual intricacies and varying functions of the masks and sweeps away deep-rooted misunderstandings. Enlightening commentaries offer background information about the function and origins of each mask's use within the ethnic groups from which they originate, and a foldout map places them in their original geographical context. BOOK JACKET
