Brookhart, 2017-07-19 Grades are imperfect shorthand answers to What did students learn and how well In How to Use Grading to Improve Learning best selling author Susan M Brookhart guides educators at all levels in figuring out how to produce grades for single assignments and report cards that accurately communicate students achievement of learning goals Brookhart explores topics that are fundamental to effective grading and learning practices Acknowledging that all students can learn Supporting and motivating student effort and learning Designing and grading appropriate assessments Creating policies for report card grading Implementing learning focused grading policies Communicating with students and parents Assessing school or district readiness for grading reform The book is grounded in research and resonates with the real lessons learned in the classroom Although grading is a necessary part of schooling Brookhart reminds us that children are sent to school to learn not to get grades This highly practical book will help you put grading and learning into proper perspective offering strategies you can use right away to ensure that your grading practices actually support student learning Grading and Learning Susan M. Brookhart, 2012-11-22 Grades should reflect and motivate learning This book is relatable relevant and effective in improving educators assessment and reporting processes and supporting students motivation to learn Understand how to grade individual assignments and give report card grades that accurately reflect and clearly communicate student achievement Clear concrete examples help translate state standards into curriculum goals

Standards Based Report Cards. Research Brief Mike Muir, 2005 With the increased focus on standards based education more and more states districts and school are becoming interested in standards based grading and report cards Hawaii for example is a state that is working hard on its Standards Implementation Design SID including standards based report cards As a component of Maine's Local Assessment System schools have the need to report student progress as it relates to the four 4 performance levels as defined by the Maine Education Assessment 4th 8th 2 Partially meets the standard 3 Meets the standard and 4 Exceeds the standard Although standards based report cards are not required it is a logical next step It seems that many jurisdictions across the country are phasing in standards based report cards beginning with the elementary grades and then adding the middle schools and high schools in later years But most of those jurisdictions seem to still rely on proficiency testing for high school students even though more and more high schools seem to be exploring standards based report cards Contains 22 online resources Grading and Reporting Student Progress in an Age of Standards Elise Trumbull, Beverly P.
