The Imaginary App Paul D. Miller, Svetlana Matviyenko, 2014-08-29 The mobile app as technique and imaginary tool offering a shortcut to instantaneous connection and entertainment Mobile apps promise to deliver happiness to our devices at the touch of a finger or two Apps offer gratifyingly immediate access to connection and entertainment The array of apps downloadable from the app store may come from the cloud but they attach themselves firmly to our individual movement from location to location on earth In The Imaginary App writers theorists and artists including Stephen Wolfram in conversation with Paul Miller and Lev Manovich explore the cultural and technological shifts that have accompanied the emergence of the mobile app These contributors and interviewees see apps variously as a machine of transcendence a hulking wound in our nervous system or a promise of new possibilities They ask whether the app is an object or a relation and if it could be a metamedium that supersedes all other artistic media They consider the control and power exercised by software architecture the app's prosthetic ability to enhance certain human capacities in reality or in imagination the app economy and the divergent possibilities it offers of making a living or making a fortune and the app as medium and remediator of reality Also included and documented in color are selected projects by artists asked to design truly imaginary apps icons of the impossible These include a female sexual arousal graph using Doppler images The Ultimate App which accepts a payment and then closes without providing information or functionality and iLuck which uses GPS technology and four leaf clover icons to mark places where luck might be found Contributors Christian Ulrik Andersen Thierry Bardini Nandita Biswas Mellamphy Benjamin H Bratton Drew S Burk Patricia Ticineto Clough Robbie Cormier Dock Currie Dal Yong Jin Nick Dyer Witheford Ryan and Hays Holladay Atle Mikkola Kjesen Eric Kluitenberg Lev Manovich Vincent Manzerolle Svitlana Matviyenko Dan Mellamphy Paul D Miller aka DJ Spooky That Subliminal Kid Steven Millward Anna Munster Soren Bro Pold Chris Richards Scott Snibbe Nick Srnicek Stephen Wolfram
