Case Studies on Modern European Economy Tibor Iván Berend, 2013 The last two centuries have been the scene of dramatic change throughout Europe And one of the main causes of these tremendous and spectacular changes was the economy These transformations were achieved by people scientists and political thinkers inventors and entrepreneurs educators skilled and educated workers Who not only invented machines and computers but were able to renew economic and political systems This volume therefore presents a new approach to the period by looking at case studies to understand how these changes came about and the impact they had on modern Europe Ivan Berend presents the spectacular history of modern European economy as a chain of small events actions and the ideas of individuals as the influence of institutions and bold entrepreneurs The essays are grouped into six chapters and discuss the power of entrepreneurship the power of institutions economic regimes and the permanent renewal of capitalism the power of ideas and inventions pioneering companies from the rise of industrial cities to post industrial suburbanization bubbles great depressions and economic cycles All of the single episodes and personal stories offer a cross section of the complex and interrelated history of modern Europe Case Studies on Modern European Economy will be essential reading for students of economic and modern European history

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume II Saul Dubow, 2016-12-05 This volume reproduces key historical texts concerning colonial knowledges The use of the adjective colonial indicates that knowledge is shaped by power relationships while the use of the plural form knowledges indicates the emphasis in this collection is on an interplay between different often competing cognitive systems George

Balandier's notion of the colonial situation is an organising principle that runs throughout the volume and there are four sub themes language and texts categorical knowledge the circulation of knowledge and indigenous knowledge The volume is designed to introduce students to a range of important interventions which speak to each other today even if they were not intended to do so when first published An introductory essay links the themes together and explains the significance of the individual articles

Design, Technology and Communication in the British Empire, 1830-1914 Annie Tindley, Andrew Wodehouse, 2016-11-30 This book is an innovative interdisciplinary study of the nature of design as a form of communication within and across Britain and its empire in the long nineteenth century In this period Britain had developed from the world's first industrial nation into the Workshop of the World but how were technological innovations translated and communicated across the imperial territories How were designs turned into reality This book explores these themes incorporating archival case study technologies such as trains sugar manufacture and agricultural technologies Using a four part framework we firstly examine the identification of innovation opportunities and how these translated to engineering specifications The realization of conceptual designs through collaboration and their subsequent manufacture and distribution as finished products are then reviewed Using the authors expertise in the fields of historical and design engineering this study contributes real world case studies to design theory

Heritage-Making in Hong Kong Through Culture and Religion Trevor Sofield, Lawal Mohammed Marafa, Fung Mei Sarah Li, Kwo Fung Shek, 2024-08-30 This book centres on religious heritage making where religion as a rich and diverse manifestation of culture and community empowerment lead to the transformation of place Fusing heritage and religion in the novel multidisciplinary concept heri ligion the authors illuminate the dynamics of change inherent in religious oriented heritage making Grounded in empirical evidence this rich concept integrates religious tourism heritage tourism and community based empowerment for sustainable development Applying this unique concept to the once abandoned Hakka village of Yim Tin Tsai the authors analyse the evolving paths of the island from its Hakka origins to a Christian pilgrimage site and more recently to a UNESCO cultural heritage site and thriving tourist destination The authors foreground the important role of the scattered community as a key agent of change in facilitating a sustainable environment of Hong Kong s only salt producing place today A dynamic example of community development and empowerment founded upon religious cultural industrial and natural heritage this book uniquely contributes to tourism and heritage studies human geography cultural sociology Hakka studies Asian studies and anthropology of religion African Sociology Bernard Magubane,2000 The sociological and political writings of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane on African political history political economy and political philosophy constitute a vital portion of a monumental legacy to later generations by an African intellectual who came to maturity through an historical consciousness that emerged during the 1960s This was a period characterized by the radical contentious philosophies of history African marxism African nationalism and the reactionary ideologies aligned with imperialism and colonialism The essays of Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane stand at a fascinating intersection with the intellectual systems of Frantz Fanon H I E Dhlomo Ngugi wa Thiong o and Amilcar Cabral They are first and foremost what Cabral and Fanon were clamoring for an instrumentarium of the construction of a progressive African ideology or African ideologies What enabled them to realize this remarkable breakthrough is that they are a continuation of the revolutionary thought of Fanon and Cabral Magubane was among the first African academic scholars to have seen the historical significance of Fanon and Cabral respectively in the mid 1960s and in the early 1970s Written in exile during the exile period in South African intellectual and cultural history these essays until recently were not easily historically locatable within the genealogical structure of South African intellectual traditions Undoubtedly this had been due to the political philosophy of apartheid and its ideological manifestations The British Military Revolution of the 19th Century Daniel R.

 LeClair,2019-10-31 From the Crimean War through the Second Boer War the British Empire sought to solve the Great Gun Question to harness improvements to ordnance small arms explosives and mechanization made possible by the Industrial Revolution The British public played a surprising but overlooked role offering myriad suggestions for improvements to the civilian led War Office Meanwhile politicians and army leaders argued over control of the country s ground forces in a decades long struggle that did not end until reforms of 1904 put the military under the Secretary of State for War Following the debate in the press voters put pressure on both Parliament and the War Office to modernize ordnance and military administration The Great Gun Question was as much about weaponry as about who ultimately controlled military power

Drawing on ordnance committee records and contemporary news reports this book fills a gap in the history of British military technology and army modernization prior to World War I Cumulated Index Medicus, 1979 Global Radio Shaheed Nick Mohammed, 2019-09-25 Global Radio From Shortwave to Streaming chronicles the development of radio as a global medium In this book Shaheed Nick Mohammed examines the evolution of radio from its early uses as little more than a novelty into a set of powerful systems for international exchanges of news culture and political influence In doing so the book follows the development of radio as a wireless form of the telegraph its evolution into a medium for sound transmission across the air and its adaptation to digital networked audio and transmissions technologies Mohammed also outlines the myriad changes in the radio industry in numerous contexts around the globe and over time including the early development of commercial and non commercial broadcasting in the United States Europe India and China and the evolution of so called international broadcasters As radio played a part in colonial politics it also figured prominently in the politics of the post colonial Within the broader context of global radio this book examines several former colonies and the transformation of radio from a tool of empire into an instrument of national development It also focuses on instances in which developing nations have used radio to bridge the gap between rural audiences and digital networked technologies connecting them to the global information superstructure Scholars of media studies communication radio studies international relations and political science will find this book particularly useful

The American Elsewhere Jimmy L. Bryan Jr., 2017-09-15 As important cultural icons of the early nineteenth century United States adventurers energized the mythologies of the West and contributed to the justifications of territorial conquest They told stories of exhilarating perils boundless landscapes and erotic encounters that elevated their chauvinism avarice and violence into forms of nobility As self proclaimed avatars of American exceptionalism Jimmy L Bryan Jr suggests in The American Elsewhere adventurers transformed westward expansion into a project of romantic nationalism A study of US expansionism from 1815 1848 The American Elsewhere delves into the adventurelogues of the era to reveal the emotional world of men who sought escape from the anonymity of the urban East and pressures of the Market Revolution As volunteers trappers traders or curiosity seekers they stepped into elsewheres distant and dangerous With their words and art they entered these unfamiliar realms that had fostered caution and apprehension and they reimagined them as regions that awakened romantic and reckless optimism In doing so Bryan shows adventurers created the figure of the remarkable American male that generated a wide appeal and encouraged a personal investment in nationhood among their audiences Bryan provides a thorough reading of a wide variety of sources including correspondence travel accounts fiction poetry artwork and material culture and finds that adventurers told stories and shaped images that beguiled a generation of Americans into believing in their own exceptionality and in their destiny to conquer the continent Person to Person Peacebuilding, Intercultural Communication and English Language Teaching Amy Jo Minett, Sarah E. Dietrich, Didem Ekici, 2022-03-16 This book maps the discursive terrain and potential of person to person peacebuilding as it intersects with and is embedded in intercultural communication. It foregrounds the voices and discourses of participants who came together in the virtual intercultural borderlands of online exchange through a service learning project with a non profit organization which focused on peace through education in Afghanistan primarily through English language tutoring. By analyzing the voices and perspectives of US based tutors who are pre service teachers of English as an Additional Language in equal measure with the voices and perspectives of adult English learners in Afghanistan the authors examine how intercultural interactants begin to work as peacebuilders. The participants describe the profound transformations they undergo throughout their intercultural tutoring journeys transformations which evidence three dimensions of person to person peacebuilding the personal relational and structural. Inspired by these voices the book further explores ways teachers and teacher educators of language and intercultural communication can more deliberately leverage the affordance of peacebuilding whether face to face or in the virtual intercultural borderlands of online exchange. Contemporary Intelligence in Africa Tshepo Gwatiwa, 2024-08-08 The edited volume examines contemporary intelligence and tradecraft in Africa. The work offers a timely and empirically grounded account of African intelligence. It provides a multi contributor narrative that explains contemporary dynamics without discounting historical and external influences as well as explaining systemic dynamics borne by African agency. The volume features chapters on different issues and themes in intelligence studies which include but are not limited to intelligence politicization covert operations and subversion during political transitions institutionalizing intelligence in post conflict states intelligence and counterterrorism financial intelligence and complex crimes intelligence professionalization media and intelligence intelligence humanization environmental intelligence and others. The volume is geographically representative and features case studies from the five regions of Africa North Africa the Maghreb East Africa or Horn of Central Africa West Africa and Southern Africa. Without following a specific theoretical orientation the book also aims to start a conversation around the prospects for a theory for African intelligence with the various chapters paying attention to the political social and economic nuances that have a bearing on contemporary intelligence in Africa. This book will be of great interest to students of intelligence studies African politics security studies and IR.

Finding Fairness Justin Jennings, 2021-02-02 Providing a sweeping archaeologically grounded view of human history Justin Jennings explores the origins endurance and elasticity of ideas about fairness and how these ideas have shaped the development of societies at critical moments over the last 20 000 years. Cultural Specificity in Transnational Television Drama Elke Weissmann, 2025-08-08 Cultural Specificity in Transnational Television Drama examines two European television industries those of Germany and Wales. This book analyses how near global shifts towards the fragmentation of audiences the convergence of media and the transnationalisation of the television industries impact in culturally specific ways. It shows that these larger developments in the industries intersect with specific local histories and cultures which influence how the changes are experienced and what kind of stories they lead to. Offering a comparative cultural analysis of these two industries and their output and drawing on a variety of methods which include interviews analysis of published interviews in the trade and other press some archival research and textual analysis this book shows that the global shifts in television impact in locally specific ways which implies a continuation and indeed exaggeration of existing cultural differences at the same time as we see increasing collaboration internationalisation and as a result also homogenisation between nations This book presents a unique emphasis on both transnationalising and localising tendencies highlighting the need to maintain analytical focus on the nation in this supposedly post national world It will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers in contemporary television landscape literary and film studies modern languages philosophy and economics

The Influence of Theorists and Pioneers on Early Childhood Education Roy Evans, Olivia N. Saracho, 2022-02-23 The chapters in this book reflect on the major shifts in the views of early childhood thinkers and educators who have contributed to contemporary theoretical frameworks pertaining to early childhood learning The book also revisits and critically analyses the influence of developmental theories on early childhood education starting in the 1890s with the work of G Stanley Hall that established the close association of early childhood education and child development Several chapters comprise critical examinations of the fundamental influence of thinkers such as Piaget Vygotsky Kohlberg Adler Pestalozzi Froebel and so on on early childhood learning The book also contends that these theoretical conceptions of child development have heavily influenced modern views of early childhood education This book is a significant new contribution to early childhood learning and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Education Public Policy History of Education Psychology and Sociology The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Early Child Development and Care

Resisting Independence Brad A. Jones, 2021-03-15 In Resisting Independence Brad A Jones maps the loyal British Atlantic s reaction to the American Revolution Through close study of four important British Atlantic port cities New York City Kingston Jamaica Halifax Nova Scotia and Glasgow Scotland Jones argues that the revolution helped trigger a new understanding of loyalty to the Crown and empire This compelling account reimagines Loyalism as a shared transatlantic ideology no less committed to ideas of liberty and freedom than the American cause and not limited to the inhabitants of the thirteen American colonies Jones reminds readers that the American Revolution was as much a story of loyalty as it was of rebellion Loyal Britons faced a daunting task to refute an American Patriot cause that sought to dismantle their nation s claim to a free and prosperous Protestant empire For the inhabitants of these four cities rejecting American independence thus required a rethinking of the beliefs and ideals that framed their loyalty to the Crown and previously drew together Britain s vast Atlantic empire Resisting Independence describes the formation and spread of this new transatlantic ideology of Loyalism Loyal subjects in North America and across the Atlantic viewed the American Revolution as a dangerous and violent social rebellion and emerged from twenty years of conflict more devoted to a balanced representative British monarchy and crucially more determined to defend their rights as British subjects In the closing years of the eighteenth century as their former countrymen struggled to build a new nation these loyal Britons remained convinced of the strength and resilience of their nation and empire and their place within it Populism and Feminism in Iran Haideh Moghissi, 2016-07-27 Women presented the first effective challenge to the Islamic regime and the clerical authority in post revolutionary Iran Women s activism in support of their legal rights and personal freedom however did not develop into a strong movement against the rising fundamentalism The Iranian socialists did not support women s autonomous organizations The convergence of the Left s populism with Islamic populism and the influence of the Iranian Shiite political culture that promotes male authority and female submission could not reconcile with women s claims to individual rights choice and personal freedom and their struggle for autonomy and self determination in private or public life
