The Ash Garden:

The Ash Garden Dennis Bock, 2002-01-08 Emiko Amai is six years old in August 1945 when the Hiroshima bomb burns away half of her face To Anton a young German physicist involved in the Manhattan Project that same bomb represents the pinnacle of scientific elegance And for his Austrian wife Sophie a Jewish refugee it marks the start of an irreparable fissure in their new marriage Fifty years later seemingly far removed from the day that defined their lives Emiko visits Anton and Sophie and in Dennis Bock's powerfully imagined narrative their histories converge The Ash Garden Dennis Bock, 2001

The Ash Garden: Hiroshima Under a Rain of Ruin Katy McCormick, 2015-02-22 The Communist's Daughter Dennis Bock, 2008-03-11 The Communist's Daughter is a sweeping novel of love and betrayal spanning the trenches of the Great War to the horrors of Spain and China Norman Bethune was a visionary whose dedication touched millions Rebellious in childhood against his father's religion he finds a calling himself saving lives on the battlefield In Republican Spain he fulfills his idealism yet before long politics destroy his romance and drive him to seek refuge in China Here in service to a man eventually known as Mao Zedong Bethune begins this account of his life and his cherished beliefs for the only person who still makes a future seem possible the daughter he has never seen The African Husbandman William Allan, 2004 The African Husbandman helped a generation of scholars and officials to appreciate that Africans' agricultural practices were both more complex and more malleable than was often thought Allan's work also pioneered research methods that wedded ethnographic and ecological fieldwork in ways that demonstrated the inextricable links between social arrangements environmental conditions and land use patterns If certain facets of Allan's analysis have now come under scrutiny his general tenet that to improve agricultural prospects in Africa one first has to understand it from the cultivators' point of view has only been strengthened with time As long as there are individuals struggling to make sense of African agricultural productivity The African Husbandman will remain a classic Writers on the Air Donna Seaman, 2005 Vibrant interviews from the radio program Open Books Beyond Hostile Islands Daniel McKay, 2024-04-02 WINNER JAVIER COY BIENNIAL RESEARCH AWARD BEST MONOGRAPH Offers a fascinating window into how the fraught politics of apology in the East Asian region have been figured in anglophone literary fiction The Pacific War 1941-1945 was fought across the world's largest ocean and left a lasting imprint on anglophone literary history However studies of that imprint or of individual authors have focused on American literature without drawing connections to parallel traditions elsewhere Beyond Hostile Islands contributes to ongoing efforts by Australasian scholars to place their national cultures in conversation with those of the United States particularly regarding studies of the ideologies that legitimize warfare Consecutively the book examines five of the most significant historical and thematic areas associated with the war island combat economic competition internment imprisonment and the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Throughout the central issue pivots around the question of how or whether at all New Zealand fiction writing differs from that of the United States Can a sense of islandness the tyranny of distance Mori cultural heritage or the political legacies of the nuclear free movement provide grounds for distinctive authorial insights As an opening gambit Beyond Hostile Islands puts forward the term ideological coproduction to describe how a territorially and demographically more minor national culture may accede to the essentials of a given ideology while differing in aspects that reflect historical and provincial dimensions that are important to it Appropriately the literary texts under examination are set in various locales including Japan the Solomon Islands New Zealand New Mexico Ontario and the Marshall Islands The book concludes in a deliberately open ended pose with the full expectation that literary writing on the Pacific War will grow in range and richness aided by the growth of Pacific Studies as a research area

A Report on the Afterlife of Culture Stephen Henighan, 2008-04-30 In this essay collection Henighan ranges across continents centuries and linguistic traditions to examine how literary culture and our perception of history are changing as the world grows smaller He weaves together daring literary criticism with front line reporting on events such as the end of the Cold War in Poland and African reactions to the G8 Summit

By Its Cover Ned Drew, Paul Sternberger, 2005-08-11 We all know we re not supposed to judge books by their covers but the truth is that we do just that nearly every time we walk into a bookstore or pull a book off a tightly packed shelf It s really not something we should be ashamed about for it reinforces something we sincerely believe design matters At its best book cover design is an art that transcends the publisher s commercial imperative to reflect both an author s ideas and contemporary cultural values in a vital intelligent and beautiful way In this groundbreaking and lavishly illustrated history authors Ned Drew and Paul Sternberger establish American book cover design as a tradition of sophisticated visual excellence that has put shape to our literary landscape By Its Cover traces the story of the American book cover from its inception as a means of utilitarian protection for the book to its current status as an elaborately produced form of communication art It is at once the intertwined story of American graphic design and American literature and features the work of such legendary figures as Rockwell Kent E McKnight Kauffer Paul Rand Alvin Lustig Rudy deHarak and Roy Kuhlman along with more recent and contemporary innovators including Push Pin Studios Chermayeff Geismar Karen Goldberg Chip Kidd and John Gall
