Helga's Diary Helga Weiss, 2013-02-14 The most moving Holocaust diary published since Anne Frank Daily Telegraph First they led us to the baths where they took from us everything we still had Quite literally there wasn't even a hair left I didn't even recognize my own mother till I heard her voice In 1941 aged 12 Helga Weiss her mother and father were forced to say goodbye to their home their relatives and all that they knew and were interned in the Nazi concentration camp of Terezín For the next three years Helga documented her experiences there and those of her friends and family in a diary Then they were sent to Auschwitz and the diary was left behind hidden in a wall Helga was one of a tiny number of Jewish children from Prague to survive the holocaust After she returned home she eventually managed to retrieve her diary and completed the journal of her experiences The result is one of the most vivid first hand accounts of the Holocaust ever to have been recovered Anne Frank's diary finished when her family was rounded up for the camps in Helga's Diary we have a child's record of life inside the extermination factories Shines a light into the long black night that was the Holocaust Daily Express Resounds with a ferocious will to endure conditions of astonishing cruelty Displays a rare capacity to remain keenly observant and to find the right words for transmitting memory into history New Statesman A moving testimony to courage and endurance Remarkable what is so compelling is the immediacy and unknowingness Financial Times Helga Weiss was born in Prague in 1929 Her father Otto was employed in the state bank and her mother Irena was a dressmaker Of the 15 000 children brought to Terezín and later
