The Complete Heretic's Guide to Christmas David Fitzgerald, 2021-12-09 The sharper eyed readers among you may notice there are a few discrepancies between our two gospel accounts of Jesus birth and early years both written by originally anonymous admitted non eyewitnesses some generations after the fact possibly in the very late first century or more probably the early to mid second century Matthew s story reads like a suspenseful chase thriller the real action doesn t even begin until at least a year after Jesus is born Amazingly Matthew doesn t even spend an entire sentence on the actual birth of Jesus in fact just five words tucked in one line Jesus was born in Bethlehem Then the story goes into high gear with lots of dark happenings Mysterious wise men from the East a moving star intrigue an evil King s plot a late night escape into Egypt a horrific massacre the holy family sneaking from place to place on the run Oh and angels appearing in dreams Lots of angels appearing in lots of dreams Matthew seems to have a great deal of firsthand knowledge of what was going on in peoples dreams either that or he has a very limited imagination when it comes to plot devices By contrast Luke s story is all sunshine and light and full of cheerful details about Jesus wonderful birth and childhood It s really two stories as he intermingles the nativity story of John the Baptist with the nativity story of Jesus but both are angst free tales filled with good things happening to happy people In Matthew anonymous angels repeatedly appear by night in dreams to the menfolk Joseph mostly In Luke s version however the angel Gabriel shows up in waking life to the women one appearance to each Unlike Matthew who puts Jesus immediately on the run to Egypt to save his life in Luke everyone is instantly delighted with the Savior s birth including the prophets who publicly acclaim him before everyone in the Temple
