Don't miss this magnificent final chapter in the breathtaking Shadow Falls series. Kylie's epic journey is about to lead her exactly where she belongs. When Kylie Galen entered Shadow Falls Camp, she left her old life behind forever and discovered a world more magical than she ever imagined. A place where your two best friends can be a witch and a vampire and where love doesn't happen the way you'd expect. When Kylie's most powerful enemy returns to destroy her once and for all, there's only one way to stop him: to step into her full powers and make a stunning transformation that will amaze everyone around her. But her journey won't be complete until she makes one final choice: which guy to love. Should she choose the werewolf who broke her heart but will give anything to win her back, or the half Fae who ran from their attraction before they had a chance? Everything she's learned at Shadow Falls has been preparing her for this moment when her fate will be revealed and her heart claimed forever. From author C.C. Hunter comes Chosen at Nightfall, the final book in the New York Times bestselling Shadow Falls series about a camp for paranormal teens. Universal Dictionary of the English Language: Rhe-Z Robert Hunter, 1897. 1668 Peter Sahlins, 2017-11-17. Peter Sahlins's brilliant new book reveals the remarkable and understudied animal moment in and around 1668, in which authors including La Fontaine (whose Fables appeared in that year), anatomists, painters, sculptors, and especially the young Louis XIV turned their attention to nonhuman beings. At the center of the Year of the Animal was the Royal Menagerie in the gardens of Versailles, dominated by exotic and graceful birds. In the remarkable unfolding of his original and sophisticated argument, Sahlins shows how the animal bodies of the menagerie and others such as the dogs and lambs of the first xenotransfusion experiments were critical to a dramatic rethinking of governance, nature, and the human. The animals of 1668 helped to shift an entire worldview in France, what Sahlins calls Renaissance humanimalism, toward more modern expressions of Classical naturalism and mechanism. In the wake of 1668 came the debasement of animals and the strengthening of human animality, including in Descartes's animal machine, highly contested during the Year of the Animal. At the same time, Louis XIV and his intellectual servants used the animals of Versailles to develop and then to transform the symbolic language of French absolutism. Louis XIV came to adopt a model of sovereignty after 1668 where his absolute authority is represented in manifold ways with the bodies of animals and justified by the bestial nature of his human subjects. 1668: The Year of the Animal in France explores and reproduces the king's animal collections in printed text, weaving poetry and engraving all seen from a unique interdisciplinary perspective. Sahlins brings the animals of 1668 together and to life as he observes them critically in their native habitats within the animal palace itself: by Louis Le Vau, the paintings and tapestries of Charles Le Brun, the garden installations of André Le Nôtre, the literary work of Charles Perrault, and the natural history of his brother Claude; the poetry of Madeleine de Scudéry, the philosophy of René Descartes, the engravings of Sébastien Leclerc, the transfusion experiments of Jean Denis, and others. The author joins the non-human and human agents of 1668: panthers and painters, swans and scientists, weasels and weavers in a learned and sophisticated treatment that will engage scholars and students of early modern France and Europe and readers broadly.
