And On That Bombshell Richard Porter,2015-10-22 I was Top Gear s script editor for 13 years and all 22 series I basically used to check spelling and think of stupid gags about The Stig I also got to hang around with Jeremy Clarkson Richard Hammond and James May It didn t feel like something you should get paid for From the disastrous pilot show of 2002 to the sudden and unexpected ending in 2015 working on Top Gear was quite a rollercoaster ride We crossed continents we made space ships we bobbed across the world s busiest shipping lane in a pick up truck We also got chased by an angry mob repeatedly sparked fury in newspapers and almost killed one of our presenters I realised that I had quite a few stories to tell from behind the scenes on the show I remembered whose daft idea it was to get a dog I recalled the willfully stupid way in which we decorated our horrible office I had a sudden flashback to the time a Bolivian drug lord threatened to kill us I decided I should write down some of these stories So I have I hope you like them And now a quote from James May Richard Porter has asked me to write a quote for his new book about the ancient history of Top Gear But this is a ridiculous request How can one write a quote Surely by definition a quote must be extracted from a greater body of writing for the purpose of illustrating or supporting a point in an unrelated work I cannot write a quote any more than I could film an out take Porter like Athens has lost his marbles
