The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie, The Girls of Slender Means, The Driver's Seat, The Only Problem Muriel Spark, 2004-04-06 The brevity of Muriel Spark's novels is equaled only by their brilliance These four novels each a miniature masterpiece illustrate her development over four decades Despite the seriousness of their themes all four are fantastic comedies of manners bristling with wit Spark

s most celebrated novel The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie tells the story of a charismatic schoolteacher's catastrophic effect on her pupils The Girls of Slender Means is a beautifully drawn portrait of young women living in a hostel in London in the giddy postwar days of 1945 The Driver's Seat follows the final haunted hours of a woman descending into madness And The Only Problem is a witty fable about suffering that brings the Book of Job to bear on contemporary terrorism All four novels give evidence of one of the most original and unmistakable voices in contemporary fiction Characters are vividly etched in a few words earth shaking events are lightly touched on Yet underneath the glittering surface there is an obsessive probing of metaphysical questions the meaning of good and evil the need for salvation the search for significance

Ancient Greece and Rome in Modern Science Fiction Ross Clare, 2022-11-24 Ancient Greece and Rome in Modern Science Fiction introduces and analyses the reception of classical antiquity in contemporary science fiction By using up to date methods from classical reception theory science fiction analysis and fictional world studies the book will help furnish the reader's understanding of the ways in which the literature culture history and mythology of ancient Greece and Rome are appropriated and represented across multiple media platforms in the science fiction genre today The book will therefore serve as an entry point into several areas of study the reception of classics in popular culture antiquity in modern media the uses of the ancient world in science fiction and broader science fiction criticism The chapters structured by medium principally offer a roughly chronological overview of that medium and its treatment of ancient history mythology literature and culture An abundance of case studies from literature film and television and videogames including Star Trek Battlestar Galactica Fallout New Vegas the Mass Effect franchise and Assassin's Creed show how classical antiquity is reused encountered re encountered by creators and consumers of the present how we bounce off it and it bounces off us and how this reciprocation creates new visions of Greece and of Rome

Radiant City Lauren B Davis, 2005-02-28 Light is neutral and indifferent It can blind as well as reveal It can save someone who wanders too close to an unseen edge but it can just as easily betray a person cowering in a hidden place So thinks Matthew Bowles as he stares out his Paris window at the sun sparkling off a tiny fountain in the place du Dublin in the 8th arrondissement Matthew a traumatized war correspondent has fled to the anonymity of Paris after himself becoming an international story for a failed act of heroism He has been offered a book contract but the ghosts of his past threaten to overtake him as he struggles to write his memoirs In a city of refugees Matthew is a refugee from reality as homeless as those whose shattered lives he records Matthew resurrects a friendship with Jack Saddler Vietnam vet ex mercenary and sometime combat photographer and is drawn into Jack's world of shadowy bars calculating lovers and booze fuelled nights of forgetting But he is also befriended by Saida the beautiful scarred woman who fled Lebanon with her family and now runs a caf on the place du Dublin Matthew is drawn in by her kindness and her fierce love for Joseph her sixteen year old son who is growing into manhood on the treacherous streets of the North African quarter This is Paris far from the glimmer of tourist lights It is here that secrets are divulged guilt and passion are revealed and Matthew is caught up in an inescapable final confrontation Shining light into the no man s land of war zones Paris s unseen quarters and the darkest corners of the human mind and heart Lauren B Davis delivers a novel of astonishing depth and power The Radiant City is the story of a man rediscovering his humanity and the necessity of participating in life rather than simply observing it

Lord Dunsany, H.P. Lovecraft, and Ray Bradbury William F. Touponce, 2013-10-10 In his classic study Supernatural Horror in Literature H P Lovecraft discusses the emergence of what he called spectral literature literature that involves the gothic themes of the supernatural found in the past but also considers modern society and humanity Beyond indicating how authors of such works derived pleasure from a sense of cosmic atmosphere Lovecraft did not elaborate on what he meant by the term spectral as a form of haunted literature concerned with modernity In Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft and Ray Bradbury Spectral Journeys William F Touponce examines what these three masters of weird fiction reveal about modernity and the condition of being modern in their tales In this study Touponce confirms that these three authors viewed storytelling as a kind of journey into the spectral Furthermore he explains how each identifies modernity with capitalism in various ways and shows a concern with surpassing the limits of realism which they see as tied to the representation of bourgeois society The collected writings of Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft and Ray Bradbury span the length of the tumultuous twentieth century with hundreds of stories By comparing these authors Touponce also traces the development of supernatural fiction since the early 1900s Reading about how these works were tied to various stages of capitalism one can see the connection between supernatural literature and society This study will appeal to fans of the three authors discussed here as well as to scholars and others interested in the connection between literature and society criticism of supernatural fiction the nature of storytelling and the meaning and experience of modernity
