The Committed Self An Introduction To Existentialism For Christians:

The Committed Self Victor A. Shepherd, 2015-01-03 The Committed Self is a clear and compelling introduction to Existentialism the root of Postmodernism and according to Victor A Shepherd still the most significant philosophy of our times Focusing on Hegel Kierkegaard Nietzsche Buber Heidegger and Sartre and their passionate commitment to the authenticity of the self Shepherd maintains that Existentialism has much to say to Christians with its understanding of What it is to be a human being How diverse forces operative in the world and in the psyche shape human self awareness The manner in which radical commitment forges and forms that self which is nothing less than a new birth Shepherd believes that an acquaintance with Existentialism will aid Christians in negotiating the minefield they think life has become And he persistently draws attention to the manner in which Existentialism recalls theology to its proper vocation whenever theology appears to be in danger of becoming a species of rationalism that uses religious vocabulary

Evangelical Calvinism Dr. Myk Habets, Bobby Grow, 2017-05-04 Continuing the discussion initiated in volume one volume two of Evangelical Calvinism further articulates the central motifs of this mood within Reformed theology by examining themes having to do with dogmatics and devotion After further clarifying the methodological and dogmatic aspects common to an Evangelical Calvinism the heart of the present volume is an explication of the vicarious ministry of Christ as it is worked out in its diverse theological dimensions The volume offers constructive accounts of various aspects of liturgy sacraments and doxology showing the vitality and lived spirituality of this Christian vision of faith and practice Both advocates and critics of Evangelical Calvinism now have an extended and thorough body of work with which to interact As with volume 1 this volume promises to set the agenda for contemporary and constructive Reformed studies in a way that provides an alternative to neo Calvinism and Westminster Calvinism alike

Human Difference Andrew Barron, 2024-08-06 Living in proximity to human disability with a son who has Down Syndrome Andrew Barron has come to understand that not only do we live in a world of human difference but that God wants us to live in this kind of world for our own flourishing Human Difference is an extended meditation on that experience and a reflection on the nature of human care and hospitality Barron seeks to understand and embrace the uncertainty that comes with living in proximity to difference and disability and reflects on how we might better cope with and ultimately be enriched by its ambiguity He undertakes a new approach to difference we must be ready to venture into uncomfortable territory to put out into the deep water and to actively seek out an intimate and open closeness with difference and disability

Irreconcilable Differences? Jason C. Robinson, David Peck, 2015-03-17 What if philosophy theology and science spent a little more time together These fields often seem at odds butting metaphysical heads Instead of talking at how about talking with one another This book engages three academic disciplines distinct yet sharing much in common in a slice of conversation and community in which participants have aimed at validating the other and the way the other sees the world The result is a collection of essays united by a thread that can be hard to find in academia In bringing together a wide range of contributors on a project that at first seemed unlikely Irreconcilable Differences is also a testament to the spirit of cooperation and hard work evidence that small acts and events can make a big difference and that sometimes all you need in order to make something good happen is an idea with a little support along the way The editors of this collection are hopeful that its contributors and readers will keep looking for ways to bridge academic social and political gaps We need to forge relationships based on personal knowledge and proper confidence seeking to make meaningful claims in an increasingly complex world

Become a Christian Andrew B. Torrance, 2016-02-25 The Kierkegaardian account of becoming a Christian has come to be perceived in radically egocentric terms Torrance challenges this perception by demonstrating that Kierkegaard was devoted to the idea of Christian conversion as a transformative process of becoming This process is grounded in an active relationship initiated by the eternal God who has established kinship with us in time Torrance focuses on becoming a Christian as a particular theological theme that deserves further attention how becoming a Christian or Christian transformation should be construed in relation to God's initiating and active relationship to the person Torrance's account of Kierkegaard on human transformation demonstrates in striking ways Kierkegaard's relevance to current issues in systematic theology and philosophical theology around the nature of Christian conversion particularly how conversion might be re conceptualized in strong divinely relational and transformative rather than in progressive self developmental terms This study also considers how Kierkegaard was able to negotiate his emphasis on the God relationship with his emphasis on the importance of individual reflection decision and action in the Christian life Christianity and International Law Pamela Slotte, John D.
