Welcome To Bridgeview The Jewish Wonder Years:

Welcome to Bridgeview Leonard Boulette, 2014-12-12 I began to realize that I would be spending many years growing up with a dual life One with the Christians and one with the Jews So says Leonard Boulette a Jewish lad who moved into a predominantly Christian community with his mother father and sister when he was four years old Welcome to Bridgeview is his memoir Now in his senior years Boulette reflects on the great moments and the trials of his Jewish life From his school days to his years as a young adult in the military under threat of being shipped to Vietnam to his eventual employment and marriage throughout the book he asks the question Does everyone in the world need to have someone to be prejudice against in order to secure their own identity Boulette encountered prejudice yes but he also met two wonderful fellows a Catholic and a Protestant who would become his allies in their encounters challenges and the curiosities of growing up If nothing else this thoughtful and eye opening book pays tribute to the relationships that accompanied him through his life Who's who in Society ,1986
