Osmer, 2008-07-02 Every church congregation encounters challenging situations some the same the world over and others specific to each church Richard Osmer here seeks to teach congregational leaders including but not limited to clergy the requisite knowledge and skills to meet such situations with sensitivity and creativity Osmer develops a framework for practical theological interpretation in congregations by focusing on four key questions What is going on in a given context Why is this going on What ought to be going on and How might the leader shape the context to better embody Christian witness and mission The book is unique in its attention to interdisciplinary issues and the ways that theological reflection is grounded in the spirituality of leaders Useful accessible and lively with lots of specific examples and case studies Osmer's Practical Theology effectively equips congregational leaders to guide their communities with theological integrity The Unnecessary Pastor Marva Dawn, Eugene Peterson, 1999-11-17 Best selling authors Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson offer encouragement to pastors Pastors are strategically placed to counter the culture No other profession looks so inoffensive but is in fact so dangerous to the status quo Their weapon A gospel that is profoundly countercultural But standing firm in today's world isn't easy Powerful forces both subtle and obvious attempt to domesticate pastors to make them in a word unnecessary In this book two of today's most respected authors help pastors recover their gospel identity and maintain a pure vision of Christian leadership Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson reconnect pastors with the biblical texts that will train them as countercultural servants of the gospel Marva Dawn looks to Paul's letter to the Ephesians for instruction for churches seeking to live faithfully in today's world In turn Eugene Peterson explores Romans 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus drawing from them the correct view of pastoral identity A Royal Waste of Time Marva J.

Dawn,1999 In this book Marva Dawn insists that churches need to engage in a serious process of community discernment concerning worship in order to employ the best tools and forms and she offers reflections to further the discussion Each part of A Royal Waste of Time begins with a sample Scripture based sermon since Dawn emphasizes that the church's worship must follow biblical guidelines and form a biblical people From publisher's description The Teaching Ministry of Congregations Richard Robert Osmer,2005-01-01 In this important and groundbreaking book Osmer develops a practical theology of the teaching ministry He begins with the Apostle Paul identifying in Paul's letters to his congregations the core tasks of the teaching ministry The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese,Craig Van Gelder, The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life The Sense of the Call Marva J. Dawn,2006-02-21 In Keeping the Sabbath Wholly Dawn introduced the vital Sabbath aspects of resting ceasing feasting and embracing Now she expands these into a way of life for serving God and the Kingdom every single day of the week Practical Life Baptism Today Thomas F. Best,2008 Our common belonging to Christ through baptism creates a bond that transcends the historic and theological differences among the churches and the mutual recognition of baptism has emerged as a cornerstone of the modern ecumenical movement Yet significant differences some threatening the search for the unity of the Church remain This book explores the significance of baptism for the churches and the ecumenical movement today Descriptive articles explain the understanding and practice of baptism within a wide range of Christian churches and confessions these are complemented by baptismal liturgies from many churches examples of mutual recognition agreements and reflections on topics such as the role of baptism in increasingly secularized societies The volume is enhanced by survey articles by prominent liturgists reviewing the current opportunities and challenges facing the churches in the area of baptism This book will be an important resource for all who wish to explore the understanding and practice of baptism and its role in the life of the churches and of the ecumenical movement today The Conviction of Things Not Seen Todd E. Truscott,2003-10-28 This resource examines the historical and theological background of the rites used for baptism and confirmation in the Lutheran Book of Worship 1978 The introduction of the LBW as the standard book in Lutheran worship not only provided North American Lutherans with a new rite for baptism but also new understandings of the meaning of baptism Baptism was suddenly seen as being central to Christian identity rather than merely serving as an infant rite of passage performed occasionally in private It also allowed for full participation of the liturgical assembly and employed a greater use of ritual and gesture Simultaneously the greater stress on baptism was accompanied by an attempt to downplay the theological and liturgical importance of confirmation the centerpiece of Lutheran spiritual formation for those persons baptized in infancy Confirmation was revised as the Affirmation of Baptism allowing it only a secondary role as a part of the original rite of baptism Truscott argues that these changes have affected how North American Lutherans think about and practice Christian initiation He also critically evaluates the LBW rites and makes proposals for the future renewal of Christian initiation in North American Lutheranism
