

Wellness Wheel

Name: _____

Accountability partner: _____

Check in frequency: _____

The seven sections in the wheel represent various dimensions of your life. Rank your level of satisfaction with each area on a scale of 1 to 10. A score of 1 means you're struggling and feel unfulfilled in that area. A score of 10 means you're completely satisfied and don't feel the area needs much improvement. Go with your gut feeling for this exercise.

Color the number of spaces on the wheel that match your ranking, starting from the inside and working outward. Once you're done, you should be able to see which areas need improvement and which ones you're satisfied with.

It's a modern and stressful world. We need a modern way to transform anxiety into vital energy. These authors offer the ways. The Educated Parent 2 Joseph D. Sclafani Ph.D., 2012-02-22. Filled with relevant expert and practical child-rearing information, this invaluable guide also helps parents understand and utilize parenting resources ranging from scientific research to Internet sites to the popular press. Taking up where the 2004 edition of The Educated Parent left off, Child Rearing in the 21st Century is a must-have guide to parenting best practices. Author Joseph D. Sclafani, a psychologist and family therapist, highlights the different approaches to child-rearing and provides practical advice about which approaches work best and why. Topics covered range from the role of the parent as supporter/protector to the efficacy of daycare and the ways parents can prepare for and assist in a child's education. The book also looks at parenting after a divorce, at the importance of fathers in children's lives, and at such 21st-century issues as cyberbullying and the anxiety-producing effects of societal pressures. One of the unique aspects of the book is that it presents and explains expert knowledge from journals and research studies that are often inaccessible to the everyday reader. Centers of parenting advice such as the Internet and parenting magazines are evaluated as well.
