A Systems Approach to Small Group Interaction Stewart L. Tubbs, 2004 A Systems Approach to Small Group Interaction pioneered the systems approach and is the only book that integrates all important small group topics into a single comprehensive conceptual model. The text also features a unique systematic organization. Each chapter begins with a brief preview followed by a glossary of terms, a real life case study, and then the chapter text material. Next come several experiential exercises for skill development, and finally the chapter concludes with two original readings.

ISearch-- Speech Communication Terrence Doyle, Linda Robinson Barr, 2003

Public Speaking Deanna D. Sellnow, 2003

Class tested by over forty instructors for the past three years. Deanna Sellnow's exciting new textbook provides a contemporary and comprehensive alternative approach to the public speaking process. Reflecting the latest in communication research yet fully focused on the needs of today's students, Public Speaking showcases both innovative and time tested strategies to help readers learn and apply the skills necessary to become effective public speakers. Unique coverage of learning styles as they apply both to the speaker and audience is highlighted and integrated throughout the text. Students are taught how to assess their own learning styles and how to apply their knowledge of different learning styles both to their analysis of audiences and in the presentation of their speeches.

Introduction to Computer-assisted Reporting Matthew Reavy, 2001

While demystifying the use of the computer as a tool in reporting methods, Introduction to Computer Assisted Reporting maintains that a computer is only supplemental to the traditional values of good journalism.

Netscape Navigator 6 Gary B. Shelly, Thomas J. Cashman, Jeffrey J. Webb, 2001

Netscape Navigator 6 provides the novice as well as the experienced user a window with which to look into the World Wide Web and tap an abundance of resources. This book is intended for use in a one credit three to five week course or in combination with other books in an introductory computer concepts or applications course. Specific objectives of this book are as follows: to teach students how to use Netscape Navigator 6 to expose students to various World Wide Web resources; to acquaint students with the more popular search engines; to show students how to do research using the World Wide Web; and to teach students how to communicate with other Internet users.
