

Email subject line: Welcome to [Company name]

Dear [Employee's name],

We are all really excited to welcome you to our team!

As agreed, your start date is [date.] We expect you to be in our offices by [time] and our dress code is [casual/ business casual.]

[If necessary, remind your employee that they need to bring their ID/ paperwork.]

At [Company name], we care about giving our employees everything they need to perform their best. As you will soon see, we have prepared your workstation with all necessary equipment. Our team will help you setup your computer, software and online accounts on your first day. [Plus, if applicable, mention any extra things you've prepared for your new hire, like a parking spot, a coffee mug with their name or a company t-shirt.]

We've planned your first days to help you settle in properly. You can find more details in the enclosed agenda. As you will see, you'll have plenty of time to read and complete your employment paperwork (HR will be there to help you during this process!) You will also meet with your hiring manager to discuss your first steps. For your first week, we have also planned a few training sessions to give you a better understanding of our company and operations.

Our team is excited to meet you and look forward to introducing themselves to you during [planned event/ lunchtime].

If you have any questions prior to your arrival, please feel free to email or call me and I'll be more than happy to help you.

We are looking forward to working with you and seeing you achieve great things!

Best regards,

Managing Recruitment and Onboarding Richard Skiba, 2024-08-22 This guide is an essential resource for professionals tasked with managing recruitment and onboarding processes within an organization. Whether you are directly involved in recruiting new staff or responsible for coordinating the process, this book provides a thorough understanding of the skills and knowledge required to effectively manage these essential HR functions. The book begins with an exploration of existing recruitment and onboarding policies and procedures, guiding readers on how to identify and evaluate them in the context of their organization. It delves into assessing technology options to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of recruitment processes, providing practical advice on selecting and implementing tools that streamline hiring workflows. A significant portion of the book is dedicated to updating and refining policies and procedures to align with organizational requirements. Readers will learn how to obtain support from relevant stakeholders and create or adjust forms and documents that underpin these policies. Effective communication and training strategies are emphasized to ensure that all relevant staff are well-informed and capable of adhering to updated procedures. The book also covers critical aspects of human resource planning, including determining future HR requirements in collaboration with stakeholders and ensuring that position descriptors are current and accurately used throughout the recruitment process. It provides detailed guidance on advertising vacant positions in compliance with legislation and organizational policies, consulting with specialists when necessary, and adhering to selection procedures that meet legal and organizational standards. Additional chapters address the importance of timely and accurate job offers and contracts, providing new appointments with relevant advice and ensuring that onboarding processes are consistently applied across the organization. The book also covers the management of probationary employees, the provision of feedback, and the collection of participant and stakeholder feedback on the onboarding process. Finally, readers are equipped with strategies for updating onboarding policies and procedures based on feedback, ensuring continuous improvement and alignment with organizational goals. This book is an invaluable tool for HR professionals seeking to optimize their recruitment and onboarding practices and contribute to the overall success of their organization.
