Perspectives on Western Sahara Anouar Boukhars, Jacques Roussellier, 2013-12-18 The ongoing conflict in Western Sahara is one of the more intractable legacies of European colonization in North Africa Following the withdrawal of Spain this territorial dispute escalated in 1975 into a war of independence between the Sahrawi people of the Polisario Front who were backed by Algeria and the states of Mauritania and Morocco In 1976 the Polisario Front established the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic which was not admitted in the UN but won recognition by a few states After multiple peace efforts the conflict reemerged in 2005 as the independence Intifada Today the Polisario Front controls about 20% of Western Sahara At the heart of the conflict lie geopolitical interests and incompatible claims aggravated by the use of military force and decades of mostly unproductive diplomatic maneuvers by international bodies and regional or foreign powers This thorough impartial survey brings together some of the best experts on the Sahara question to provide a broad based analysis of the problem from a range of perspectives Featuring new research the chapters examine the roots of the conflict its dynamics and potential solutions This groundbreaking text also addresses questions of law human rights natural resources from an analytical point of view Contributed by scholars from North Africa Europe and the U S it is an essential contribution to the literature of Middle East and African studies

A History of the Western Sahara Conflict Michael Baers, 2022-10-10 The conflict in Western Sahara has endured for nearly half a century yet remains little known on the world stage Drawing on multiple sources this book presents an expansive history of both the conflict and the region encompassing the history of the early Moroccan empires the successive migrations of Arab nomads across the Sahara the age of European exploration and colonialism and the postcolonial period when the conflict erupted out of a complex set of forces that include longstanding regional tensions North Africa s colonial legacy the instability of post independence Morocco and diplomatic intrigues on the part of Western powers during the Cold War period While it does not address the history of the conflict following the UN mandated ceasefire of 1991 the book provides an overview for readers interested in both the conflict itself and the history of African nationalism in the post war period

Global, Regional and Local Dimensions of Western Sahara's Protracted Decolonization Raquel

Ojeda-Garcia, Irene Fernández-Molina, Victoria Veguilla, 2016-11-30 This book explores the traces of the passage of time on the protracted and intractable conflict of Western Sahara. The authors offer a multilevel analysis of recent developments from the global to the local scenes including the collapse of the architecture of the UN led conflict resolution process, the advent of the War on Terror to the Sahara Sahel area and the impact of the Arab Spring and growing regional security instability. Special attention is devoted to changes in the Western Sahara territory annexed by Morocco and the Sahrawi refugee camps in Algeria. Morocco has adapted its governance and public policies to profound socio-demographic transformations in the territory under its control and has attempted to obtain international recognition for this annexation by proposing an Autonomy Plan. The Polisario Front and Sahrawi nationalists have shifted their strategy and pushed the centre of gravity of the conflict back inwards by focusing on pro-independence activism inside the disputed territory. Not on the Map Michael J. Seth, 2021-12-27 This book analyzes how de facto states including Nagorno Karabakh, Abkhazia, South Ossetia, Transnistria, Kosovo, the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus, the Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic, Somaliland and Taiwan have developed without recognition of sovereignty from the international community. Sovereignty in Exile Alice Wilson, 2016-09-23 Traces social, political and economic changes among Sahrawi refugees in North Africa. Sovereignty in Exile explores sovereignty and state power through the case of a liberation movement that set out to make itself into a state. The Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic (SADR) was founded by the Polisario Front in the wake of Spain's abandonment of its former colony, the disputed Western Sahara. Morocco laid claim to the same territory and the conflict has locked Polisario and Morocco in a political stalemate that has lasted forty years. Complicating the situation is the fact that Polisario conducts its day-to-day operations in refugee camps near Tindouf in Algeria, which house most of the Sahrawi exile community. SADR, a partially recognized state, and Polisario, Western Sahara's liberation movement, together form an unusual governing authority originally premised on the dismantling of a perceived threat to national Sahrawi unity. Drawing on unprecedented long-term research gained by living with Sahrawi refugee families, Alice Wilson examines how tribal social relations are undermined, recycled and have reemerged as the refugee community negotiates governance, resolves disputes, manages social inequalities and improvises alternatives to taxation. Wilson trains an ethnographic lens on the creation of administrative categories, legal reforms, aid distribution, marriage practices, local markets and contested elections within the camps. Tracing social, political and economic changes among Sahrawi refugees, Sovereignty in Exile reveals the dynamics of a postcolonial liberation movement that has endured for decades in the deserts of North Africa while trying to bring about the revolutionary transformation of a society which identifies with a Bedouin past. Nation Shapes Fred M. Shelley, 2013-04-23 This book provides a concise and comprehensive description of all of the borders of every country in the contemporary world, including physical boundaries, their historical evolution and border-related conflicts with other countries. Nation Shapes: The Story

Territorial Integrity in a Globalizing World Abdelhamid El Ouali, 2012-03-28 This book offers a comprehensive highly informative and interdisciplinary study on territorial integrity and the challenges globalization self determination and external interventions present This study aims at not only to fill an epistemological gap in this regard but also answer the question of whether International Law is adequately equipped to help states address these challenges The author argues that the biggest threat that many states are confronted with today is their disintegration rather than their obsolescence and that International Law has not often been able to prevent that eventuality In fact states when they were not destroyed by war managed to survive thanks to the flexibility of territoriality i.e. their ability to adjust to difficult situations as they arose It is this understanding of adaptation that urges an increasing number of states today to revive territorial autonomy and restore an original understanding of self determination in which democracy is a pivotal factor in establishing congruence between the states and their nations While this move is endorsed by International Law it is not the case for globalization for their own sake proponents of globalization should recognize that the states are irreplaceable as long as they remain the sole providers of protection for their peoples Brownlie's Principles of Public International Law James Crawford, Ian Brownlie, 2019 Serving as a single volume introduction to the field as a whole this ninth edition of Brownlie's Principles of International Law seeks to present international law as a system that is based on and helps structure relations among states and other entities at the international level

North Africa Yahia H. Zoubir, Haizam Amirah-Fernández, 2008-01-15 This volume provides a comprehensive overview of the contemporary Maghreb It includes profiles of individual countries and regional issues such as migration gender economics and war in Western Sahara

External Governance as Security Community Building Pernille Rieker, 2016-04-26 The European Neighbourhood Policy ENP was initially intended to create a ring of friends surrounding the Union from Morocco to Russia and the Black Sea Prodi 2002 Today however the ever worsening security situation in the region clearly shows that the aim has not been achieved With wars in Ukraine Syria and Libya the Union's neighbourhood can therefore better be described as a ring of fire Does this mean that the policy has failed and that an alternative policy towards the EU's neighbours is needed Or should these developments be seen as temporary setbacks caused by external factors beyond EU control By comparing the EU's approach to its eastern and southern neighbours this volume seeks to answer such overarching questions The authors find that the EU still has a potential role to play in providing regional security but that this role also risks being increasingly undermined if it does not increasingly take into account the broader geostrategic realities in both regions

Post-Colonial Settlement Strategy Ehud Eiran, 2019-02-20 Settlement projects are sustained clusters of policies that allow states to strategically plan implement and support the permanent transfer of nationals into a territory not under their sovereignty Ehud Eiran explains why states launch settlement projects into occupied areas and introduces the international environment as an important enabling variable By drawing comparisons between three such major projects Israel in the West Bank and Gaza Morocco in Western Sahara and Indonesia in East Timor Ehud Eiran classifies post colonial settlement projects as a distinct cluster of cases that warrant a different analytical approach to traditional colonial studies

Gender and the Media Marcia Texler Segal, Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, 2018-11-19 A variety of print audio and visual media including comics trade publications music and newspapers are considered to explore the portrayal of gender and gender related issues With a focus on girls and women the chapters ponder how media formats both shape and are shaped by the social order

North African Mosaic Nabil Boudraa, Joseph Krause, 2009-03-26 This book's ambition is to offer the most recent scholarship on North African cultures at a time when the very notion of culture is being re-evaluated in the shifting tides that both associate and divorce the forces of nationalism globalism and neo liberalism Another ambition is to be a readable document about the past and the potential of North African civilizations Those which have been crystallized into a polysemic voice from centuries of occupations exchanges and what is now commonly called hybridizations In this work the collective position of the authors with their different fields of experience is that the languages musics and the many expressions of common life in North Africa continue to flourish That they are a bridge between sub-Saharan peoples and Europe That they are a necessary antidote to the anemic political discourses that have prevailed since decolonization That they are seminal for the future of the African continent as it begins its true voyage into democracy It is difficult at this juncture to measure the distance that in the decades to come will be achieved on that voyage It is however less difficult to evaluate the importance of North Africa on tomorrow's world If the past is an indicator it will be an important force in the cross flow of trade ideas and of global destinies Western Sahara Pablo San Martín, 2010-10-15 The Western Sahara is the last colony in Africa and the only Spanish speaking territory in the Arab World When in 1975 the agonising Francoist Spain abandoned hastily its colony Morocco and Mauritania occupied the territory despite the protest of the UN and the resistance of a nascent Saharawi liberation movement the Frente Polisario During the first months the conflict displaced thousands of Saharawis to the neighbouring Algerian region of Tindouf where almost 200 000 Saharawis still live today in four large refugee camps But these camps are more than refugee settlements They became the centre of a state founded by the Saharawi nationalists the Saharawi Arab Democratic Republic now recognised by over 60 states worldwide and full member of the African Union The camps provided the opportunity to develop a process of nation building and identity construction based on the principles of the revolutionary nationalism of the 1970s This book explores the dynamic process of construction of the new Saharawi identity culture and society developed in the refugee camps over the three last decades of conflict and analyses the complex articulation of elements from the Hispanic Arab and African worlds that shapes the contours of the Saharawi Refugee Nation

African Immigrants in Contemporary Spanish Texts Debra Faszter-McMahon, Victoria L. Ketz, 2016-03-09 Around the turn of 21st Century Spain welcomed more than six million foreigners many of them from various parts of the African continent How African immigrants represent themselves and are represented in contemporary Spanish texts is the subject of this interdisciplinary collection Analyzing blogs films translations and literary works by contemporary authors including Donato Ndongo Equatorial Guinea Abderrahman El Fathi Morocco Chus Gutiérrez Spain Juan Bonilla Spain and Bahia Mahmud Awah Western Sahara the contributors interrogate how Spanish cultural texts represent idealize or sympathize with the plight of immigrants as well as the ways in which immigrants themselves represent Spain and Spanish culture At the same time these works shed light on issues related to Spain's racial ethnic and sexual boundaries the appeal of images of Africa in the contemporary marketplace and the role of Spain's economic crisis in shaping attitudes towards immigration Taken together the essays are a convincing reminder that cultural texts provide a mirror into the perceptions of a society during times of change

Western Sahara Stephen Zunes, Jacob Mundy, 2010-08-04 The Western Sahara conflict has proven to be one of the most protracted and intractable struggles facing the international community Pitting local nationalist determination against Moroccan territorial ambitions the dispute is further complicated by regional tensions with Algeria and the geo strategic concerns of major global players including the United States France and the territory's former colonial ruler Spain Since the early 1990s the UN Security Council has failed to find a formula that will delicately balance these interests against Western Sahara's long denied right to a self determination referendum as one of the last UN recognized colonies The widely lauded first edition was the first book length treatment of the issue in the previous two decades Zunes and Mundy examined the origins evolution and resilience of the Western Sahara conflict deploying a diverse array of sources and firsthand knowledge of the region gained from multiple research visits Shifting geographical frames local regional and international provided for a robust analysis of the stakes involved With the renewal of the armed conflict continued diplomatic stalemate growing waves of nonviolent resistance in the occupied territory and the recent U S recognition of Morocco s annexation this new revised and expanded paperback edition brings us up to date on a long forgotten conflict that is finally capturing the world s attention

Islam in the World Today Werner Ende,Udo Steinbach,2011-12-15 Considered the most authoritative single volume reference work on Islam in the contemporary world the German language Der Islam in der Gegenwart currently in its fifth edition offers a wealth of authoritative information on the religious political social and cultural life of Islamic nations and of Islamic immigrant communities elsewhere Now Cornell University Press is making this invaluable resource accessible to English language readers More current than the latest German edition on which it is based Islam in the World Today covers a comprehensive array of topics in concise essays by some of the world s leading experts on Islam including the history of Islam from the earliest years through the twentieth century with particular attention to Sunni and Shi i Islam and Islamic revival movements during the last three centuries data on the advance of Islam along with current population statistics Muslim ideas on modern economics on social order and on attempts to modernize Islamic law shari a and apply it in contemporary Muslim societies Islam in diaspora especially the situation in Europe and America secularism democracy and human rights and women in Islam Twenty four essays are each devoted to a specific Muslim country or a country with significant Muslim minorities spanning Asia Africa the Middle East and the former Soviet Union Additional essays illuminate Islamic culture exploring local traditions the languages and dialects of Muslim peoples and art architecture and literature Detailed bibliographies and indexes ensure the book s usefulness as a reference work
