Women's Science Margaret A. Eisenhart, Elizabeth Finkel, 1998-11-15 Are there places where women succeed in science Numerous studies in recent years document a gender gap in science and engineering showing women s interest in these fields declines from grade school to adulthood WOMEN S SCIENCE expands our conception of scientific practice as it reconfigures both women s role in science and the meaning of science in contemporary society American English File 3e Level 4 Student Book Christina Latham-Koenig, Clive Oxenden, Jerry Lambert, 2020-07-28 American English File Second Edition retains the popular methodology developed by world renowned authors Christina Latham Koenig and Clive Oxenden language motivation opportunity With grammar vocabulary and pronunciation practice in every lesson students are equipped with a solid foundation for successful speaking Plus an array of digital resources provides even more choice and flexibility Students can learn in the classroom or on the move with Online Practice language assessment The first goal is to explore the difference between fairness and justice in language assessment The authors distinguish internal and external dimensions of the equitable and just treatment of individuals taking language tests which are used as gatekeeping devices to determine access to education and employment immigrant status citizenship and other rights The second goal is to show how the extent of test fairness can be demonstrated and improved using the tools of psychometrics in particular the models collectively known as Rasch measurement This book will have an enormous impact on the field of language assessment Using Rasch analysis models to explore and identify sources of unfairness the authors make a compelling case for fairness in the design and implementation of language assessment instruments and for justice in the interpretation and use of test results A real strength of the book is that it guides readers through analytical techniques in an accessible way Dan Douglas Professor Emeritus Applied Linguistics Program Iowa State University East Coast Country Frost, Alan, 2016-10-18 East Coast Country beautifully evokes the landscape history and culture of the sugarcane region of Queensland the adjacent islands and the Great Barrier Reef showing the region's distinctiveness within Australia Alan Frost's beguiling writing is founded on a detailed knowledge of North Queensland history In East Coast Country geographical botanical geological and historical insights as well as family memory and personal remembrance are woven into a compelling and fascinating reflection Recurring motifs connect each part of the whole among these are Captain Cook's 1770 voyage up the eastern coast which brought the region to European consciousness for the first time and the author's journeys outwards as a child and his periodic returns as an adult Through this sensitive and multilayered text Alan Frost succeeds in creating a mythology of place in a way that is unique in Australian writing Folia Primatologica ,1983 Participatory Media in Environmental Communication Usha Sundar Harris, 2018-09-13 Participatory Media in Environmental Communication brings together stories of communities in the Pacific islands a region that is severely affected by the impacts of climate change Despite living on the margins of the digital revolution these island communities have used media and communication to create awareness of and find solutions to environmental challenges By telling their stories in their own way ordinary people are able to communicate compelling accounts of how different but interrelated environmental political and economic issues converge and impact at a local level This book fills a significant gap in our understanding of how participatory media is used as a dialogic tool to raise awareness and facilitate discussion of environmental issues that are now critical It includes a section on pedagogy and practice the undergirding principles the tools the methods The book offers a framework for Participatory Environmental Communication that weaves three widely used concepts diversity network and agency into a cohesive underlying system to bring scholars practitioners and diverse communities together in a dialogue about pressing environmental issues This book is a valuable resource for researchers and students in communication and media studies environmental communication cultural studies and environmental sciences as well as practitioners policy makers and environmental activists Backpacker ,2009-04 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world
