The Peacock Feast Lisa Gornick, 2024-06-04 A twentieth century saga about love class and the decisions that shape us from one of the most perceptive compassionate writers of fiction in America Michael Schaub NPR Now 101 years old Prudence O Connor is visited by her estranged brother s granddaughter and shown a series of mementos that bring a century of family drama back to the surface of her memory She and her brother spent their early childhood in Oyster Bay Long Island in the shadow of the eccentric glass genius Louis C Tiffany Tiffany was a man who liked to have things his way And when it struck him to claim a portion of beach for his opulent mansion he blew up a breakwater to redirect the flow of the ocean And that explosion in June of 1916 sent shockwaves through the lives of Prudence and her family Spanning the twentieth century and three continents The Peacock Feast ricochets from Manhattan to San Francisco from the decadent mansions of the Tiffany family to the death row of a Texas prison and from the London consultation room of Anna Freud to a Mendocino commune Lisa Gornick has written a sweeping family drama an exploration of the meaning of art and the art of dying and an illuminating portrait of how our decisions reverberate across time and space

The Vacant Space Jaime Perez, 2014-04-08 As he trudges through his wealthy yet introverted life Thomas Silva has carefully managed to compensate through the years for his lack of human connection by monetarily helping struggling members of his community but this impersonal and unorthodox method of getting by is beginning to lose its effectiveness and is no longer serving its purpose A less than social childhood fused together with a fair share of uncertainty from his past has unfortunately carried on to Thomas adult life making him the reclusive person he is now It s not until he experiences a series of life changing events that Thomas begins to consider a serious and much needed change in perspective towards his unfulfilling life A Vacant Space is about one s lonely journey through existence as merely a passive spectator in the volatile game of life a lonely journey that desperately needs to begin onto another path anew It s never too late to start a new beginning even if you feel you are already so close to the end

Prophets Without Honor William Strabala, Michael Palecek, 2002 Radical priests laid it on the line challenging government corporations and the Church Some were jailed some were killed Personal accounts tell why they had to do it and why governments and the Church fought so hard to stop them The book tells the story of a group of American men who happen to be priests and who happen to have served decades in American prisons and the stalwart women who helped them form an international movement called Plowshares In so doing the book tells the morally patriotic story of America a story told before only from behind an open hand across the face like a football coach talking to his spotters in full view of a national television audience afraid someone might see Darrell Rupiper Larry Rosebaugh and Carl Kabat are Oblate missionary priests Frank Cordaro is a diocesan priest from Des Moines Roy Bourgeois is a Maryknoll priest Charlie Liteky is an ex Trinitarian priest Rupiper was in the national spotlight during the Iran hostage crisis He traveled to Iran as part of team of clerics hoping to gain the release of the hostages Rosebaugh now lives with the poor in El Salvador He was a member of the Milwaukee 14 a group that burned draft records in accord with the example set by the Berrigan brothers at Catonsville Maryland in 1968 Kabat has served over 16 years in United States federal and state prisons since 1980 as a result of his anti military actions Cordaro has served half a dozen federal prison terms for his anti nuclear activities He has also given sanctuary to a manure spreader in support of Iowa farmers During the Carter presidency Cordaro found himself on the front page of the Washington Post after he stood in front of Carter during a press conference to tell the world the truth about the S A L T treaty Bourgeois from the deep South and a former military officer who served in Vietnam recently made his own front page news N Y Times Washington Post and others as leader of the massive protests at Fort Benning Georgia calling for the closing of the School of the Americas Bourgeois and Rosebaugh also served prison terms in the 1980s when they sneaked into Fort Benning climbed a tree and played a tape outside the Salvadoran soldiers barracks of the last sermon given by slain archbishop Oscar Romero Liteky is a former chaplain who served in Vietnam He received the Congressional Medal of Honor and later surrendered it challenging General Abrams and President Nixon in the process With the exception of Cordaro all of these men began their clerical careers as missionaries in Brazil the Philippines Bolivia and Vietnam and discovered America in the process They discovered that the trail of the poor leads through such countries directly back to America It leads directly to Rupiper s home in Carroll Iowa to Rosebaugh and Kabat s roots in rural Illinois to Cordaro s Des Moines Italian household and to the nation s capital where Liteky was born They also discovered that the America they grew up in never existed They read history and learned about America s militarism its attempts at global hegemony and they felt they must resist They wanted with all their hearts for their childhood America to be made real a just and loving America even if that meant they must spend years behind prison walls
