US Marine Infantry Combat Uniforms and Equipment 2000-12 J. Kenneth Eward, 2012-09-20 While sharing some weapons systems with the other US Forces the Marine Corps has developed its own distinctive approach to matters of dress personal equipment and armament The most important trends are a new generation of camouflage clothing body armor and night vision equipment which have transformed the appearance and capability of the individual rifleman The men and women of the USMC have been at the forefront of these developments utilizing innovative items of dress and equipment during their extensive service in a range of challenging environments across the world Featuring specially commissioned full color artwork and detailed photographs this book explores the USMC's key contribution to the development of the combat infantry soldier's clothing and personal equipment in the 21st century

US Marine Corps Recon and Special Operations Uniforms & Equipment 2000-15 J. Kenneth Eward, 2016-01-20 In the age of modern warfare the changing landscape of the 21st century battlefield has demanded a transformation within the US Marine Corps Special Operations Adapting to a huge range of combat environments an enormous array of specialist uniforms protective armour and battlefield electronic devices have been developed to facilitate missions in the most extreme conditions A special forces operator may now have available to him a dozen distinct types of body armour and two dozen different weapons never before in American military history has so much been given to so few Authored by J Kenneth Eward professor at the American Military University and illustrated throughout with photographs and meticulous colour plates this volume offers the first detailed authoritative study of the characteristics and performance in the field of the most modern combat gear and weapons provided for USMC specialist operators to date

US Grenade Launchers Gordon L. Rottman, 2017-09-21 In an effort to provide the US infantryman with more firepower to cover the range gap between the hand grenade and the light mortar the 40mm M79 grenade launcher a shoulder fired single shot weapon entered service with US forces in 1961 Reliable easy to use and lethally effective the M79 soon became an iconic symbol of the Vietnam War and had a profound influence on small unit tactics As the Vietnam conflict continued it was joined on the front line by experimental models such as the magazine fed T148E1 as well as two launchers intended to be fitted under the barrel of the new M16 assault rifle Colt's XM148 and AAI Corporation's M203 The M203 remains in US Army service today while the US Marine Corps now also fields the M32 multiple grenade launcher like the M79 a standalone weapon Featuring full colour artwork this is the story of the rugged and formidable grenade launchers that equipped the United States and its allies in Vietnam and beyond from the 1960s to the present day

U.S. Marines in Iraq, 2003 Melissa D. Mihocko, 2011 The story of combat service support during Operation Iraqi Freedom I is one that could have been easily overlooked by history except what would have been lost is more than a simple tale of Marines performing exceptionally during a time of war Lost would have been a recollection of historical firsts an account of extraordinary vision and insight from some of the Marine Corps top leaders and a chronicle of miracles performed in the heat of battle by individuals who rarely receive the glory and praise of their front line combat counterparts This monograph tells the story of the Marines and sailors from 1st Force Service Support Group and 2nd Force Service Support Group whose combined efforts helped pave the way for the Marine Corps success during operation Iraqi Freedom I The author Lieutenant Colonel Melissa D Mihocko is a supply officer who has served as a field historian with the History Division since 2002 Before this service Lt Col Mihocko was assigned to 4th Civil Affairs Group and deployed twice to the Balkans and once during a MEU s Mediterranean deployment In 2003 just months after joining the detachment she mobilized and deployed as a field historian in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom Between February and May of that year LtCol Mihocko was assigned to 1st Force Service Support Group and traveled to Kuwait and Iraq to collect more than 130 oral history interviews along with documents artifacts and photos More important however she gained a firsthand look at the Marines Corps combat service support in action Following her deployment she remained on active duty and mobilized again to work on this monograph Dr Charles P Neimeyer Director of Marine Corps History Foreword

American Military History Daniel K. Blewett, 2008-12-30 In this companion volume to his 1995 bibliography of the same title Daniel Blewett continues his foray into the vast literature of military studies As did its predecessor it covers land air and naval forces primarily but not exclusively from a U S perspective with the welcome emergence of small wars from publishing obscurity In addition to identifying relevant organizations and associations Blewett has gathered together the very best in chronologies bibliographies biographical dictionaries indexes journals abstracts glossaries and encyclopedias each accompanied by a brief descriptive annotation This work remains a pertinent addition to the general reference collections of public and academic libraries as well as special libraries government documents collections military and intelligence agency libraries and historical societies and museums
